UPD investigates former employee

A former Texas A&M employee may have stolen more than $30,000 from the University's civil engineering department, University Police Department Director Bob Watt said. School auditors discovered the money was missing when they checked the books of the Center for Construction Education two weeks ago, he said. Further investigation pointed to the former employee as a suspect.

The suspect served as a senior secretary and was fired in November 1995. The suspect's dismissal was not related to the investigation, he said.

Watt would not release the subject's name Wednesday and called the investigation "preliminary."

UPD officials have spoken to Brazos County District Attorney Bill

Turner to discuss the case, Watt said. Police currently are trying to subpoena bank records for further

Police search for assault suspect

Police are searching for a man who allegedly sexually assaulted an area student on Aug. 21.

Police reports said officers responding to the call at the 1900 block of Dartmouth late that night found a white female, who complained that she had been sexually assaulted by someone she knew.

The girl was reportedly assaulted at 4 a.m.

College Station police would not release any information on the victim, who was identified in the reports only as "Jane Doe." Police routinely withhold such information to protect the victim.

No information on the suspect was available.

The new TI-83

The singular

solution for a multi-function world.

One calculator to handle algebra through calculus. Another for finance. And a computer program to perform statistical computations. Whoa! Wouldn't it be extraordinary if one calculator could handle so many diverse needs, and still be easy to use? Well, now one does just that. Presenting the TI-83 Graphing Calculator.

The revolutionary TI-83 handles a host of functions for a variety of college subjects. And if you're familiar with the popular TI-82, picking up the TI-83 will be a snap. The new TI-83. In a multi-function world, there simply is no equal. Check it out at your campus bookstore or favorite retailer where TI calculators are sold.

START DOING EXTRAORDINARY THINGS

Math. Split screen allows you to trace the graph and scroll the table simultaneously.

Statistics. Display results of hypothesis tests graphically and numerically.

Finance. Financial functions: Time-Value-of-Money, cash flows, and amortization.
