Downey pleads no contest to charges

MALIBU, Calif. (AP) — Robert Downey Jr. pleaded no contest to drug and weapons charges and was ordered to remain in a drug treatment center until sentencing.

Downey, 31, could get up to three years in prison at his Nov. 6 sentencing. Under the plea, a felony heroin possession charge was dropped.

Downey

After the hearing, the actor kissed his estranged wife, Deborah Falconer, and appeared relieved. Asked by reporters how his treatment was going, he replied, "Real good. It's working."

Prosecutors said they will probably seek some jail time for Downey, who was arrested in June. Officers said they found crack cocaine, heroin and a handgun in his truck during a Malibu traffic stop.

Hours before he was to be arraigned on those charges, sheriff's deputies arrested him again on charges of breaking into a neighbor's home, where he was found sleeping in a child's bed. Those charges are pending.

Downey received an Oscar nomination for the 1992 film Chaplin. His other films include Less Than Zero and Natural Born Killers.

Rapper charged for throwing woman

LAFAYETTE, La. (AP) — Rapper Luther Campbell has been charged with injuring a woman by throwing her into the crowd during a concert.

The former front man of 2 Live Crew was performing at a nightclub on July 14 when he held down the woman with help from his dance troupe, police said.

Campbell, whose stage name is Luke Skywalker, then picked the woman up and threw her into the crowd, police said. She was knocked unconscious but her injuries were not stated in the warrant.

Campbell, who lives in Miami, was charged with battery and was being sought by police, Capt. Mike Savoie said Wednesday. The victim filed the complaint in July but investigators needed time to gather evidence.

Campbell and 2 Live Crew gained notoriety in 1990 when Campbell was acquitted of giving an obscene performance at a Hollywood, Fla., nightclub after a federal judge declared the group's As Nasty As They Wanna Be album obscene.

Cassidy takes over high-tech 'EFX' role

LAS VEGAS (AP) — Keith Partridge is leaving the '70s behind and going high tech.

David Cassidy will replace an injured Michael Crawford in the starring role of "EFX," a $41 million sight and sound production at the MGM Grand hotel-casino, the hotel said Wednesday.

Cassidy

Cassidy, best known for his role in the hit TV series The Partridge Family, will take over for Crawford while the Phantom of the Opera star recuperates from a hip injury.

Tragedy causes canceled concert

WOODSTOCK, N.Y. (AP) — The Dave Matthews Band canceled a concert in Nashville after the bassist's baby girl died.

Stefan Lessard's 3-week-old daughter, Asian, died Wednesday morning in Woodstock, the group said. The cause of the death was not clear. Asian was Lessard's only child.

The band, from Charlottesville, Va., canceled its Wednesday concert and was deciding when to perform Friday in Kansas Mo., and Saturday in St. Louis. The band is on a 12-week tour to promote its hit album Crash.

Injured Airwolf actor improves

MISSION VIEJO, Calif. (AP) — Jan-Michael Vincent is on the mend. The 52-year-old actor, who broke his neck in a car crash last month, is improving and is expected to return to the show on Wednesday.

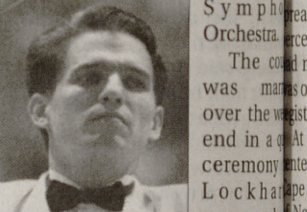

Vincent was injured when his car rear-ended his friend's Cadillac, spun out of control and slammed into a pole. The crash was being investigated as drunken driving.

Vincent may be best known for his role as the pilot of television's Airwolf, which ran on CBS from 1984 to 1986.
