► Football Weekend

Buses offer way to football game

Both the University and the Brazos Transit System offer off-campus busing to campus for football games.

Free busing, provided by the University and paid for by the Athletic Department, will run two hours before and two hours after the game. Passengers must show game tickets to board at all off-campus bus stops.

Buses will pick up every 10 to 15 minutes at all usual off-campus bus stops and will stop on Throckmorton Street on Southside, between the president's home and Duncan Drill Field.

The Brazos Transit System will pick up passengers from the Bryan High School and A&M Consolidated High School parking lots for $4 a passenger. The shuttles will stop on Joe Routt Boulevard across from Kyle Field.

Emergency vehicles helped by changes

Parking is prohibited along one side of residential streets that border George Bush Drive on Southside.

In previous years, football game patrons parked along both sides of these streets, inhibiting emergency vehicle access.

Signs posted by the city of College Station will indicate which areas are no parking areas.

'Go with the Green' cures congestion

To minimize traffic problems and avoid delays caused by football game congestion, the Texas Department of Transportation designed a "Go with the Green" route system.

Two major construction projects near Kyle Field may also slow down traffic.

"Go with the Green" tips include:

- Use off-campus shuttle buses.
- Leave Kyle Field 30 minutes after the game to avoid peak congestion.

Follow the green routes on posted "Go with the Green" maps to avoid the heavily congested areas.

Other adjustments to be aware of:

- George Bush Drive from Olsen Road to FM 2818 will be available to westbound traffic — those heading toward FM 2818 — only for 30 minutes after the game.

- Police officers will direct pedestrian and motor vehicle traffic.

- Cars leaving parking lots adjacent to Kyle Field will be directed to exit from left-turn only or right-turn only driveways onto Wellborn Road.

Aggie Band to celebrate reunion

The Texas Aggie Band Association will celebrate its annual reunion this weekend, with several hundred former band members in attendance.

The 200-member Reunion Band will march-in to Kyle Field and will play from the stands.

Association members will join current band members at 11 a.m. Saturday in Duncan Dining Hall for a luncheon followed by a rehearsal at E.V. Adams Band Hall and on Joe T. Haney Drill Field.

Marine Corps to award A&M student

James D. Redding, a senior political science major, will receive the U.S. Marine Corps Commandant's trophy Saturday after the Corps of Cadets' march-in.

Redding, the fourth Aggie to win the trophy, was the top performer in his Platoon Leader Class Combined Course at the Marines' Officer Candidate School in Quantico, Va., this summer.

Maj. Gen. Jack K. Klimp will present the award to Redding and will review the Corps' march-in before the football game against the University of North Texas.

Klimp, a 1968 U.S. Naval Academy graduate, is commanding general of the Marine Corps Recruiting Command in Washington, D.C. Redding will be commended by Marine second lieutenant in May 1997 graduation.

The Corps will kick off the march-in at 2:15 p.m., and the will begin at 2:45 p.m.

Care Team offers game-day health tips

Texas A&M's Emergency Team suggests the following tips for those attending the game:

- Drink plenty of water during and after each game.
- Do not skip any meals.
- Wear loose cotton clothes.
- Wear sunscreen and hat.
- Wear comfortable shoes.
- Avoid consumption of alcohol before or during the game.

Grad students Fulbright grants

Fulbright grants have been awarded to two Texas A&M graduate students.

Suzette Mouchaty, a 2000 graduate student, and Nancy O'Connell, a sociology graduate student, will use the grants for research abroad.

Mouchaty will travel to Europe and Claycomb will travel to

► This day in history

(AP) — Today is Friday, Sept. 20, the 264th day of 1996. There are 102 days left in the year.

On this date:

In 1519, Portuguese navigator Ferdinand Magellan set out from Spain on a voyage to find a western passage to the Spice Islands in Indonesia. Magellan was killed en route, but one of his ships eventually circumnavigated the world.

In 1870, Italian troops took control of the Papal States, leading to the unification of Italy.

In 1881, Chester A. Arthur was sworn in as the 21st president of the United States, succeeding James A. Garfield, who had been assassinated.

In 1962, black student James Meredith was blocked from enrolling at the University of Mississippi by Gov. Ross R. Barnett. (Meredith was later admitted.)

In 1963, in a speech to the U.N. General Assembly, President Kennedy proposed a joint U.S.-Soviet expedition to the moon.

In 1973, in their so-called "battle of the sexes," tennis star Billie Jean King defeated Bobby Riggs in straight sets, 6-4, 6-3, 6-3, at the Houston Astrodome.

In 1976, Playboy magazine released an interview in which Democratic presidential nominee Jimmy Carter admitted he'd "looked on a lot of women with lust."

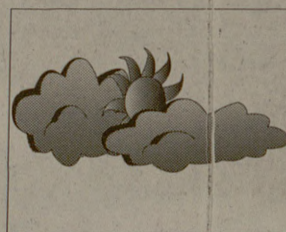

One year ago: In a move that stunned Wall Street, AT&T Corp. announced it was splitting into three companies. The House voted to drop the national speed limit and let states decide how fast people should drive.
