here, but I'm not going to let anybody make this somewhat negative."

Walker said the team needed consistency in all aspects of the game to get back on a winning track.

"I look at the offense and one of the best offensive units practiced against since I've been here," Walker said. "I look at a defensive unit and you've got people who have experienced people who can make plays and have the people and the personnel to do it, and there's no one on our schedule we can't beat who we play together."

The Aggies have several players banged up in the aftermath of the Colorado contest. Running back Marc Broyles (knee surgery) and defensive back Delvin Peay (shoulder surgery) are out for a week. Wide receiver Aaron Greer (urological surgery) is doubtful, and defensive backs Dan Greer (turf toe) and Tony Lee (sprained ankle) have had their workouts this week but are not available for Saturday's match-up at Louisiana Tech at Kyle Field.

Taking the Offense

The Aggies continue to leave their mark in Central Region and national offense leader boards.

As of Sept. 23, junior forward Bryn Blalock continues to lead the nation and Central Region in three categories. She has racked up 13 goals assists and four game-winning goals just midway through the season.

Alongside Blalock is senior forward Kristen Koop, who ranked sixth regionally with goals and seven assists through 19 points. Junior midfielder Diana Rowe is tied for 10th in scoring in the Central Region with six goals and five assists while senior forward Ivette Iler is tied for seventh with game-winning goals.

Stellar Goalie

Defensively, Wilson is at the top of the Central Region rankings with a 0.59 goals-against average, which also ranks 14th in the nation. For the season, the freshman has started all but one game for the Aggies and has 24 saves and 765 minutes of playing time, while allowing only five goals.

Odds and Ends

The Big 12 Conference's top two of the top 10 scoring players in the country in A&M (5.57 goals per game) and Nebraska (5.57 goals per game) ranked sixth and fourth respectively among top offensive attacks.
