Orioles lead Indians 2-0 in AL playoff

BALTIMORE (AP) — Cal Ripken scored the tiebreaking run on a disputed play in the eighth inning, and the Baltimore Orioles beat the Cleveland Indians 7-4 Wednesday for a 2-0 lead in their best-of-five AL playoff series.
Baltimore moved within one win of becoming the first wild-card team to advance, and pushed the defending AL champions to the brink of elimination. Game 3 will be Friday in Cleveland.
Brady Anderson homered, helping the Orioles take a 4-0 lead. Albert Belle homered as the Indians rallied, tying it with a run in the eighth.
But Baltimore bounced back in a controversial bottom of the eighth. Bobby Bonilla drew a leadoff walk from Eric Plunk and Ripken, in his first playoff series in 13 years, hit a ground-rule double. Eddie Murray was given an intentional walk to load the bases.
Paul Assenmacher relieved, and B.J. Surhoff hit a bouncer back to the mound. Assenmacher threw home for a forceout, but — with Surhoff running the wrong side of the bases — the throw from catcher Steve Alomar bounced to first base and dribbled away.

Bonilla

The wild throw allowed Hargrove to score for a 5-4 lead. Hargrove out of the dugout to cuss the play with plate umpire Greg Kosco.
Hargrove argued that Surhoff was in the base line, to no avail. Oiler's defense plays cleared showed Surhoff on the left side of the base line as he approached the bag.
Once play resumed, Anderson hit a sacrifice fly and Roberto Alomar added an RBI single.
Following a players' protest with Hargrove, Kenny Lofton scored on one out and stole two bases of the playoff series scoring on a groundout by Scott Seitzer. Jim Thome then scored and Belle got his first hit of the series, a home run into the left seats that cut the lead to 4-3.
In the seventh, Baltimore's Scott Erickson issued two walks with two outs and was replaced by Jesse Orosco, who struck out Lofton on a 2-2 pitch. Seitzer and Jim Thome singled to open the eighth, chasing Orosco, and Franco tied the game with a sacrifice fly off Armando Benitez.

Braves beat Dodgers in NL playoff opener

LOS ANGELES (AP) — John Smoltz took care of the Los Angeles Dodgers for the first nine innings Wednesday. His catcher finished them off in the 10th.
Smoltz, who led the majors in wins and strikeouts this season, allowed only four hits and Javy Lopez homered off Antonio Osuna to start the 10th as the pitching-rich Atlanta Braves beat the slumping Dodgers 2-1 in the opener of their NL playoff series.
As expected, the matchup between the teams with the top two staffs in baseball was a pitching duel. There were just nine hits in the entire game, four by Atlanta.
Smoltz, 24-8 this year, retired his final 13 batters in a dominating performance. He struck out seven, walked two and threw strikes on his last 17 pitches. He improved to 6-1 lifetime in postseason play.
Mark Wohlers, who had a club-record 39 saves, worked around a one-out single by Greg Gagne to preserve the victory for the defending World Series champions.
Ramon Martinez pitched Smoltz for eight innings, giving up just three hits. But bullpen manager Dave Stewart said the Dodgers lost their fifth straight game, a streak that cost them the NL West title and left them in a wild card team.

Lopez worked the count full before fouling off three pitches. He then hit a drive far over the fence in right-center field.
Martinez left after the eighth having thrown 131 pitches. His last pitch, he retired Len Laine on a grounder with one runner at third. He struck out three batters.
The Dodgers tied it in the top two-out double by slumping reliever Todd Hollandsworth, who finished the regular season with two hits in his final 23 at-bats.
Hollandsworth was 0-4 with a strikeout before slicing his hit inside the third-base line on the first pitch from Smoltz.
Atlanta took a 1-0 lead in the fourth when Marquis Grissom singled, stole second, and scored on a groundout and sacrifice fly by Fred McGriff.

Alomar may withdraw appeal

The Baltimore Oriole may withdraw an appeal of a five-game suspension for spitting in an umpire's face.
NEW YORK (AP) — Roberto Alomar might withdraw the appeal of his five-game suspension, putting baseball officials and umpires back on a collision course.
If the players' association withdraws the appeal, American League president Gene Budig wouldn't be able to conduct a hearing Thursday.
And Alomar, in keeping with baseball precedent, would serve the suspension at the start of next season.
That's exactly what umpires don't want.
Without Budig's hearing, the contentious sides would return Friday to federal court in Philadelphia, where the American and National leagues have asked for an injunction that would prevent umpires from boycotting the rest of the postseason.
Alomar's agent, Jaime Torres, has discussed withdrawing the appeal with union officials, according to sources who spoke on condition they not be identified.
Even some umpires expect U.S. District Judge Edmund Ludwig to issue an injunction if the sides don't settle. The labor agreement umpires signed in May 1995 contains a no-strike clause.
"We signed a contract to work and we're obligated to do that," umpire Drew Coble said Wednesday before Game 2 of the Indians-Orioles series. "We've played competition," Stark said to play Baylor. "Despite the fact we are playing a game, it's an underestimate."
