

Jones, Johnson put differences aside

IRVING (AP) — Whatever their feelings for each other may be, Jerry Jones and Jimmy Johnson aren't saying.

Jones, the Dallas Cowboys owner who hired and fired Johnson after five-year tenure that included two Super Bowl titles, said: "Our feelings make no difference in how this game comes out." Johnson, in a national conference call Tuesday, agreed: "My relationship with the owner and coach (Barry Switzer) has nothing to do with this game. Obviously, there's some emotional tano, 63.3. Jones and assistant coaches I've moved to the solution part. I vowed to myself I wasn't going to let my emotions enter into it."

Johnson, who took over the Dolphins this year from Don Shula, said he doesn't have to tell his players how he feels heading into Sunday's showdown between Dallas and Miami.

"Our players understand this is an emotional game for me," Johnson said. "What is important is we're 4-3 and trying to get back smart, energetic, and positive. "I felt we could work together and we did. The facts are life has been good to both of us since Jimmy left."

Said Johnson: "I decided I wanted to part company and move to South Florida. I was pleased then and I'm pleased now."

Jones said all the hype around the game is enjoyable. "This game is getting a lot of visibility and I like that," he said. "But we're behind the 8-ball at 4-3 and I don't like that."

Jones added: "I'm glad to have Jimmy back in the NFL. Nobody likes sizzle and entertainment like I do and Jimmy brings that to the NFL. Jimmy is a great football coach."

Switzer, who had a 5-3 record against Johnson in college games, said he had no special feelings about meeting Johnson in the professional ranks.

"A victory means more to me than who it's against," Switzer said. "Jerry and Jimmy aren't going to be out on the field playing and, thank God, I won't either. The players will either win or lose." Switzer, whose Oklahoma teams were 5-0 against Johnson's Oklahoma State clubs, was 0-3 against Johnson after he moved to Miami.

"I had the better talent at Oklahoma when we played Jimmy and he had the better talent when he moved to Miami," Switzer said.

"That's the way it was. As far as I'm concerned this is just the eighth game on our schedule. It will be two 4-3 teams who are struggling and needing to play well."

Johnson said Switzer had it right. "He had a better hand when I was at Oklahoma State but at Miami we beat him three times for a national title and pretty well resolved that issue," Johnson said. "I've congratulated him on his Super Bowl victory."

Johnson, who once guaranteed an NFC championship victory over San Francisco and pulled it off, said he wouldn't try that for Sunday's game.

Switzer said. "I've congratulated him on his Super Bowl victory."

Sapenter reinstated as Prairie View A&M head coach

PRAIRIE VIEW (AP) — Hensley Sapenter Jr. was reinstated as Prairie View A&M's interim football coach Tuesday but removed as athletic director after a school investigation into his use of ineligible players.

Prairie View President Charles Hines said Sapenter, who had been suspended with pay for five games, will serve as coach on a probationary basis until the end of this season.

Sapenter will not, however, resume duties as athletic director, Hines said. That job was given on an interim basis to Clifton Gilliard last month after news of an internal investigation of the team.

Hines, in a brief release from the school, did not say if Sapenter would return as coach next season.

There was no listed telephone number for Sapenter, and he could not be reached by The Associated Press on Tuesday.

Last month, Sapenter acknowledged using possibly ineligible players because he was short-handed in the offensive line and feared injury to inexperienced players.

Prairie View stopped offering athletic scholarships in 1989 and has at times struggled to field a team at all.

"I knew there were some kids that the compliance officer told me were technically ineligible," Sapenter said. "It was simply a situation where I didn't have any other kids to play."

"Had I not played them, I would have been using kids who could have been injured. I was not comfortable with that."

The university's statement said results from the internal investigation had been turned over to SWAC officials.

The Panthers lost the TSU game and are 0-8 this season. Their NCAA-record losing streak stands at 65 games, dating to a victory over Mississippi Valley State on Oct. 28, 1989.

Sapenter, a Prairie View alumnus hired in 1995, established an alumni fund to provide scholarships in an attempt to turn the program around. Fifteen were offered this season.

Former TCU standout, coach Allie White dies

FORT WORTH (AP) — Allison "Allie" White, a member of the Texas Christian University football team that won the 1938 national title and a former Horned Frog coach, died Monday in Fort Worth. He was 81.

Arriving in Fort Worth as a 12-year-old orphan from Crosby in 1927, White was destined to become one of the city's most renowned athletes.

In the early 1930s he became one of Rusty Russell's famed "Mighty Mites" at the Masonic Home, earning All-State honors three consecutive years and playing on the 1932 team that tied Corsicana, 0-0, in the state title game, losing on penetrations.

Later, he played on TCU teams led by legendary stars Sam Baugh and Davey O'Brien, including the squad that won the national championship.

After a year with the Philadelphia Eagles and four years in the Navy during World War II, White spent 19 years as an assistant coach at TCU under Dutch Meyer, Abe Martin and Fred Taylor.

White was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame, the Texas Interscholastic League Hall of Fame and the TCU Lettermen's Hall of Fame.

The funeral was scheduled for 10 a.m. Thursday at TCU's Robert Carr Chapel.
