Check Out PLATINUM technology, inc.
We will be at campus interviewing on Friday, November 8th • 9am-5pm

Go to the Career Planning Center and check us out! Or better yet, visit our Web site at <http://www.platinum.com> to see what we have to offer!

It's time to enter the "real world." Instead of getting your feet wet at some "entry-level" job, we suggest diving into something a little deeper and more challenging. And rewarding!!! We'll show you how we can start you on an exciting career—using your unique ideas and talents.

We are looking for graduates who would be interested in developing and supporting leading-edge software products. Come check us out and see if you have the qualifications necessary to become a part of this dynamic and innovative company.

We not only have exceptional benefits (medical, dental, vision, life, matching 401(k), stock options) but we also offer tuition reimbursement, flexible hours AND a casual dress environment.

If you are unavailable on November 8th, you can send your resume directly to us at:

Lady Aggies fall to Baylor in four

The 10th-ranked Texas A&M Volleyball Team was unable to complete the Baylor sweep this weekend. The Lady Aggies lost to Baylor 15-12, 15-10, 13-15 and 15-13 at the Ferrel Center in Waco. A&M is the highest ranked team Baylor has ever beaten.

In the losing effort, junior Kristie Smedsrud led the team with 25 kills and 14 digs. Sophomore Farah Mensik led the team in assists with 56.

The Bears (16-12, 5-9) outthrew the Lady Aggies .231 to .220, and Baylor's Nicole DeNault was unstoppable with 24 kills.

The Lady Aggies' (21-4, 12-2) next game will be a rematch with archrival the University of Texas Wednesday in Austin at 7 p.m.

Dingwall sisters lose in semifinals

The Texas A&M Women's Tennis Team's sister duo of senior Nancy Dingwall and freshman Lisa Dingwall were defeated in the doubles semifinals of the ITA Rolex Southwest Regional Tennis Championships Saturday in Austin at the Penick-Allison Tennis Center at the University of Texas.

The fifth-seeded Dingwalls gathered four wins before falling to the second-seeded Texas Team Sandy Surephong and Laura Berendt, 8-1.

Earlier, Lisa was defeated in the singles semifinals by Berendt, 6-4,

Oilers snare two-game losing streak

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Chandler, who missed last game with an injury, and Oiler's Fred Strickland rescued Troy Aikman from a two-game losing streak Sunday as the Oilers beat the Saints 31-14.

"They caught us off guard," said Oiler's cornerback Mark Anderson. "We knew they were going to come out and play hard."

Cowboys win in overtime

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Fred Strickland rescued Troy Aikman from a two-game losing streak Sunday as the Cowboys beat the San Francisco 49ers 27-24 in overtime.

Dallas (6-4), in a game falling out from post-season contention, avoided a straight loss and ended a game losing streak to San Francisco (7-3). With both Washington and Philadelphia losing Sunday, the Cowboys pulled within one game of the NFC East lead.

The 49ers played much better than they did in the first place of Steve Young, who was lined late in the second quarter with a concussion.

Men's Swimming Team victorious

The 19th-ranked Texas A&M Men's Swimming and Diving Team defeated both the University of Kansas and Iowa State University in a dual meet at Robinson Natatorium in Lawrence, Kan., Friday night.

The Aggies defeated Kansas 175.5 to 124.5 and Iowa State 164.5 to 116.5.

Leading the way was senior Robb Pantano, who won the 200-meter freestyle, 100-meter backstroke, 200-meter backstroke and swam on the first place 400-meter freestyle relay team.

A&M Head Coach Mel Nash said this was the best overall dual meet they have had since he has been at A&M.

"I'm especially proud of the way Robb Pantano performed," Nash said. "We asked him to perform an especially hard double in the 200-meter freestyle and coming right back and competing in the 100-meter backstroke."

The 24th-ranked Texas A&M Women's Swimming and Diving Team defeated Iowa State University 238-62 but lost to 22nd-ranked University of Kansas 173-117 in a dual meet at Robinson Natatorium in Lawrence, Kan., Saturday.

The Lady Aggies were not at full strength. Junior Stacie Karnes missed the meet because of a death in her family.

A&M Head Coach Don Wagner said the meet was a lot closer than the score indicated.

"Our team swam very well, we have depth, we just need a little gas in some of our individual events," Wagner said.
