LSU sweeps A&M swimming/diving

The Texas A&M Men's and Women's Swimming and Diving Teams posted some of their best times, but it was not enough to beat Louisiana State University this weekend in Baton Rouge, La.

The women lost by 11 points, while the men lost by 25. Despite being swept, Men's Head Coach Mel Nash said he was pleased by his team's performance.

"We swam extremely well," Nash said. "We had swimmers not only post season-best times, but lifetime bests as well. Tim Campbell's top time was 9:43 in the 1000 free and he went out and swam a 9:29. Except for the final score, I am very pleased with the performances of all of the team."

Leading the women was senior Stacie Karnes who set a school record in the 200-meter butterfly with a 2:01.39 time.

"I'm extremely proud of our team," A&M Women's Head Coach Don Wagner said. "Every swimmer posted a season-best time and we had some outstanding performances."

Lady Aggies split Kansas road trip

The 14th-ranked Texas A&M Volleyball Team split a pair of road games this weekend. The Lady Aggies defeated the University of Kansas 15-13, 15-6 and 15-8 Friday but lost to the 23rd-ranked Kansas State University 1-15, 16-14, 6-15, and 3-15 Saturday.

Against Kansas, the Lady Aggies outthrew the Jayhawks .227 to .059 and compiled a total of 13 team blocks en route to a sweep.

Junior outside hitter Farah Mensik continued her assist rampage by adding 32 to her total, and senior outside hitter Page White led the team in kills with 16.

"We have some great players and great fans that we appreciated greatly," Edwards said. "I think we did what we wanted to do and made an impression on many people."

As far as next year is concerned, Guerrieri said that, with the help of the seniors, A&M has set a standard
