Fall 1996 — A bittersweet time for Texas A&M sports

A&M Football — The Aggies dropped the ball in 1996, plummeting out of the rankings, failing to make a bowl, and finishing a mediocre 6-6. Consequently, the team's offensive and defensive coordinators were released as both Head Coach R.C. Slocum and the program remain under fire.

A&M Volleyball — The nationally-ranked Lady Aggies endured an emotional roller coaster in 1996, finishing 25-8. A&M advanced to the second-round of the NCAA Tournament for a program-record fourth consecutive year.

A&M Soccer — Members of the Texas A&M Soccer Team celebrate a goal against Baylor. The Aggies spent the season at the top of the national polls and finished with a record of 19-4. However, their dream season ended on a bitter note with a first-round, home loss in the NCAA Championships.
