

THE BATTALION NATION

SPRING BREAK '97

Cancun from $349
Acapulco from $399
plus tax

Holiday Express
21st Year 800-235-TRIP

Infinite RECORD CONVENTION

FREE ADMISSION WITH SCHOOL I.D.

JAZZ COLLEGE STATION
BLUES RAMADA
DANCE 1502 S. TEXAS
METAL SATURDAY
ALTERNATIVE FEBRUARY 1ST
MEMORABILIA

HUGE SELECTION LOW PRICES
OPEN 10 TO 5 BUY SELL TRADE ADMISSION $3.00

Congratulations to the 96-97
New Initiates

Kathryn Allen	Jackie Jobe
Jennifer Anderson	Keli King
Heather Ashley	Jamie Lewis
Kira Bailey	Jill Lewis
Paige Bell	Jana Little
Erin Bentley	Lisa Lucas
Rebecca Brock	Meredith Luebbehusen
Ashley Burt	Tina Mallory
Christie Caldwell	Cynthia Mavs
Danielle Carter	Meredith McClure
Suzi Castillo	Melanie McIntosh
Claire Castleberry	Tara Moody
Amy Cegelski	Melissa Murphy
Brandy Chisholm	Laura Nobles
Elizabeth Cronin	Ginny Oxford
Emily Curtis	Kelly Powers
Carolyn Davis	Valerie Ransower
Neisa de Barros	Lauren Reese
Becky Drake	Erin Richardson
Christi Drake	Mary Ann Rison
Maggie Duffy	Christie Rogers
Lindsay Elder	Kelly Rothermel
Corrie Goddard	Sarah Seidel
Courtney Green	Shanna Standley
Lisa Haglund	Amy Stephenson
Rebecca Harper	Kristin Stockton
Emily Hayter	Pam Stover
Amy Herndon	Lara Thurman
Stephanie Hettick	Vanessa Tocatjian
Meredith Hill	Tara Toliver
Ashly Holmstrom	Meikle Wilkes
Sara Hyde	Senna Woest
Laura Ingle	Julie Wright

Lindsey Yeager

Simpson trial goes to jury

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — O.J. Simpson's fate was placed in the hands of a jury Tuesday after a final theatrical flourish from an attorney who waved a wad of bills at the football great and accused him of cheapening the lives of the victims.

The panel deliberated two hours before quitting for the night. They must decide whether Simpson should be held responsible and made to pay millions for the June 12, 1994, knife slayings of Nicole Brown Simpson and Ronald Goldman. Simpson was acquitted of the crime of a year and a half ago.

Some jurors took notes as Judge Hiroshi Fujisaki explained in his instructions that Simpson is not being subjected to double jeopardy: "Even though the defendant Simpson was acquitted in the criminal case, you can still find him liable."

"Mr. Simpson, here's $200. Give ... my client back his son!"

Simpson's lawyer, Robert Baker, rose from his seat and yelled back: "Give it up! Give it up!"

"Give my client back his son and we will march out of here in a heartbeat!"

Petrocelli raged. Simpson showed no reaction.

Petrocelli's stirring end to the five-month case came after nearly five days of closing arguments.

Simpson

As the court day began, the case was further delayed by an hour because of an undisclosed jury problem.

Sources who spoke on condition of anonymity said some jurors had been contacted by a person or agency offering to represent them after the trial for media deals. Jurors brought the matter to the judge's attention, and the judge interviewed all the panelists without dismissing any of them.

Once jurors returned to their seats, the plaintiffs unleashed a final volley of invective against Simpson. Petrocelli berated both Simpson and Baker for "denying the undeniable" and for underestimating the victims' lives.

"We heard Mr. Baker say Mr. Simpson is the victim in all of this — not two precious human beings that are dead," Petrocelli said.

"Enough is enough," the lawyer

continued. "Two people lost their lives. ... They deserve their final peace. Their lives mattered ... and that man who took their lives should be held accountable."

Petrocelli urged jurors to discount Simpson's easy demeanor and winning smile, quoting Shakespeare's "Hamlet" — "One may smile and smile and be a villain."

Petrocelli again attacked Simpson's alibi and his contention the 31 photos of him wearing Bruno Magli shoes are fake. He also noted Simpson has never given a clear explanation for cuts on his hand.

At one point, he showed a picture of Simpson's cut ring finger on his left hand and clawed at it with his own fingernails as if to show that's how the victims injured Simpson.

"These are the marks of a killer," he declared.

More than once, Baker objected that Petrocelli was not rebutting the defense argument but launching an entirely new line of attack. The judge overruled the objections.

He referred to Baker's argument that Simpson would never go out to kill in a "big, white elephant" of a Ford Bronco.

"You know what Mr. Simpson's other choices were? A Bentley and a Ferrari," Petrocelli said.

Relatives cried but there were some giggles from spectators as Petrocelli grimly derided Simpson's defense. Jurors stared back at him stonewalled, the same expression they have given throughout the days of summations by seven lawyers.

STATE

Continued from Page 1

Thompson, along with champions from other Texas public and private colleges, is requesting $92 million to increase the number of college graduates in Texas.

The Texas Higher Education Coalition promotes partnerships with public high schools and community colleges and increasing college enrollment. The coalition's goal is to increase the number of college graduates in Texas by 15,200 more per year by 2005.

The Texas legislative session which began Jan. 14, ends in June. Bowen said testimony before the legislature is just the first step in a long process of getting the bill proposal approved by the governor.

CHALLENGER

Continued from Page 1

The clouds of smoke lingered in the sky for several minutes.

Cuellar said last year's 10th anniversary was viewed as especially significant only by tradition, as each year has equal impact on the state.

"It still brings a tear to my eye," he said. "It does not matter if it is the 10th, 11th or 12th year."

DROWNING

Continued from Page 1

Landry said at the time of the incident, he did not realize how fortunate he and his mother were.

"My mom and I started hearing everybody tell us how lucky we were and we started thinking about how lucky we were and that's when it hit us," he said. "I'd like to thank God that I was able to save my mom."

CLASSES

Continued from Page 1

"One of the things we'd like to improve is our ability to reach people on computers," he said.

Chip Schaeffer, who teaches country and western dance at University Plus, said he gets a lot of feedback from his students.

"You can see a light bulb go on and they have a new play toy," Schaeffer said.

Because classes are held on campus, parking has become a problem. Capehart tells students to use the University parking garages.

Those interested in classes should pick up the University Plus brochure or stop by their office at the lower level of the MSC. Office hours are Monday through Thursday from noon to 10 p.m. and Fridays and Saturdays from noon to 5 p.m. Their office phone number is 845-1631.

It's not too late to get in the '97 Aggieland

SPRING 'MAKEUPS'

Don't miss out on this final opportunity to be in Texas A&M's Aggieland yearbook.

Class pictures will be taken 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. Monday - Friday until February 21.

Pictures being taken ON CAMPUS in MSC basement across from University PLUS

Yearbook class portraits by AR Photography
Call 693-8183 for more details

Now You Can Drive To Europe In Less Than 10 Minutes

Welcome To The Vintage House Trattoria at Messina Hof.

You're sitting in a small, family-owned eatery on a small family-owned Estate. A soft breeze gently caresses the sea of grapevines... swaying in natural harmony.

Authentic European food so good you'll want to go home and paint your ceiling.

The pastel sunlight streams in through tall, stained-glass windows. The green clear lake mirrors the perfect sky. The large white cranes seem to shimmer in the reflected light.

Fresh. Gourmet. Handmade. Homemade. Casual.

You sip a superb glass of wine, made close by. Your spirits soar. Your palate rejoices. You've found palate nirvana and you can drive here in less than ten minutes.

Open for lunch 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., Wednesdays - Sundays, no reservations required and open for dinner, 4-10 p.m., Friday and Saturday evenings by reservation.

This is how it should be. This is how it is. The Vintage House Trattoria at Messina Hof.

(409) 778-9463

GOLDEN KEY N.H.S.

General Meeting
@ 7:00 p.m. 402 Rudder
January 29th

FREE FOOD!!!

Do You Have Panic Attacks?

Freedom Research, Inc. is seeking volunteers for a 12-week research study of an investigational medication for panic disorder. You must be 18-65 years old in good health. You may be paid up to $200 for your participation in the study.

For more information call:
229-0049

WIN FREE Ring Dance TICKETS

The Class of 1997 is hosting a t-shirt design contest. The Grand Prize designer of the Senior Week 1997 t-shirt will win Ring Dance tickets.

Artwork should depict "Step-off into the Spotlight," the week's theme.

Work should be submitted no larger than 8.5" x 11" and black and white. All entries become the property of the Class of 1997.

All entries due February 21, 1997 by 5 p.m. in 216 MSC.

Additional guidelines are available in the MSC, Koldus, Wehner, Zachary, and Langford.

Please call the Class of 1997 at 845-1515 for more information.

CHAT & CHEW

Discuss questions and concerns with your Vice President for Student Affairs

DR. MALON SUTHERLAND
Light refreshments available.

JANUARY 29 PAVILION 11:30 - 1:30

PROFITABLE NUMBER!
845-0569

THE BATTALION Classified Advertising

Aggie

By MA...
The cure...
Texas A&M Mer... stand at home...
The Aggies...
bounding edge...
sive pressure to...
rally by the Un...
Tigers to win t... game, 61-57 at...
seum last night...
A&M (8-9, 2...
start as they wa...
10, 2-5) jump o...

Defens

Looking for c... comings, the T... found Windex in...
Missouri Tigers p...
The Aggies p... in a three-game...
the glass with a...
"We did a gr...
pleased with ou...
Coach Tony Bar... job rebounding...
for 16 rebounds...
With 32 of the...
Davis credited th...
"The guards...
the boards by re...
ball to Brian (Bar... effect and did a...
The rebound...
the win down th...
Aggies were only...
lowed the Tigers...
Tony Barone...

Ladyway

BY JAMI...
THE BA...
The Texas A&M... ball Team's back...
At 7-10 overall, 1-...
Lady Aggies need... ing tonight in...
against the Univ...
7-13 overall, 0-7...
A&M Head Co...
exasperated after...
conference losses...
an ultimatum...
"Whoever wins...
to be the one tha...
win." Harvey said...
ately need a win. S...