

MAY GRADS

If you ordered a 1997 Aggieland and will not be on campus this fall to pick it up, you can have it mailed. You should stop by room 015 of the Reed McDonald Building between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and pay a $6.50 mailing and handling fee. Refunds will not be made on Aggieland yearbooks not picked up within one semester of the publication date.

Congratulations to the National Society of Black Engineers Texas A&M Chapter

for receiving the

1997 National Distinguished Chapter Excellence Award

during the 22nd Annual National NSBE Convention in Boston, Massachusetts for outstanding programs, community service, and membership development. The competition consisted of over 250 universities across the nation!!! Upholding A&M's tradition of being the best at whatever we do!!!

School's Out. Bag the Books.

Here's a cool way to send your books overseas or across the border. Bag the books in our nifty M-Bag, once you have wrapped and addressed them, we'll speed them to virtually any destination on the planet. That's everything from the unabridged history of the world to alternative comics, 11 to 66 lbs.* worth, starting at only 64 cents a lb. And with the cash you'll be saving, you might be able to send yourself home, too.
