A&M names assistant basketball coach

Desmond Oliver has been hired as an assistant men's basketball coach at Texas A&M.

Oliver, 27, replaces Frank Haith, who left last month to accept an assistant coaching position at Wake Forest.

Oliver served as an assistant coach the last two seasons at Niagara University.

He is a 1992 graduate of Dominican College, where he played basketball for three years. In May 1994, he received a master's degree in student personnel administration from State University College in Buffalo, N.Y.

Red Wings masseur emerges from coma

ROYAL OAK, Mich. (AP) — Detroit Red Wings team masseur Sergei Mnatsakanov has regained consciousness, William Beaumont Hospital officials said today.

"He has made sufficient progress now in terms of his level of awareness and in the consistency of his responses," hospital spokeswoman Colette Stimmell said. "Dr. Robbins told me this morning that we consider him conscious. ... Sergei is wakeful most of the time."

Dr. James Robbins is a trauma surgeon at Beaumont.

Stimmell said Mnatsakanov's return to consciousness happened gradually over the past few days.

Red Wings defenseman Vladimir Konstantinov continues to show signs of emerging from a coma, Stimmell said. Both men remain in serious condition, she said.

Reds manager throws pitcher out

HOUSTON (AP) — Cincinnati Reds manager Ray Knight ordered pitcher Mike Morgan out of the clubhouse before Sunday's game, leaving Morgan's future with the team in doubt.

Morgan said he has lost respect for Knight. The manager said that Morgan, 37, is frustrated because he knows he is near the end of his career.

"I'm still in the process of looking into the situation," Reds general manager Jim Bowden said Sunday night.

During a meeting before the Reds' game with the Houston Astros, Morgan reportedly told Knight he could no longer pitch for a Knight-managed team. Knight called Bowden, then told Morgan to pack his belongings and get out.

"I've lost respect for that guy," Morgan said of Knight. "I think our whole club has. That should be the writing on the wall right there, I think."

Asked whether it was the pitchers who were most upset with Knight, Morgan said: "Geez, pitchers, catchers, outfielders, go down the list."

Astros trio ready for All-Star scene

HOUSTON (AP) — Darryl Kile hopes to pitch in the All-Star game this time.

He was there representing the Houston Astros in 1993 but never left the bench. Neither did St. Louis' Lee Smith, who sat beside him.

"He told me he hadn't gotten in four straight games so I didn't feel so bad," Kile said. "It would be great if I do get in, but I'm not expecting to."

Kile (10-3) is having one of his most productive seasons in the Astros rotation. He pitched his first no-hitter on Sept. 8, 1993, after earning his first All-Star designation.

He pitched a no-hitter through 8.2 innings Saturday before finishing with a two-hitter in a 2-1 victory over the Cincinnati Reds for his final start before Tuesday's All-Star game.

He'll be joined by second baseman Craig Biggio and first baseman Jeff Bagwell, who were voted starters for the NL All-Stars.

The Astros have their largest All-Star representation since 1994 when Bagwell, Biggio, Ken Caminiti, John Hudek and Doug Drabek attended the game for the Astros.

Bagwell

Biggio

Kile

"I look forward to playing Camy (now with the San Diego Padres) again and (Kile) will be there, too, so hopefully he'll pitch while we're all in the game," Biggio said.

Kile is second in the NL with 2.17 ERA. He leads the league with 141.1 innings pitched and among the leaders with 109 strikeouts, two shutouts and .215 on-base batting average against.

Kile credits his backup for outstanding season.

"What happens is you sense that you are getting a break with a big defensive play, timely hitting," Kile said. "It gives you a platform of confidence to build on. Now, a lot of that is happening for me."

Bagwell said Kile has been pitching great all year.

"He had a great fastball," Bagwell said. "When he has that kind of fast ball, with a curveball, he's very tough to hit."

Bagwell broke out of a major slump on Sunday with a two-homer performance for the 11th time in his career. He was 0-for-2 going into the final game of the series against Cincinnati but destroyed the Reds with his first RBIs.

"Obviously, I know I haven't been hitting the last few weeks," Bagwell said. "When I don't hit, we don't score as many runs. My job is to get out of my mini-slump and fix it."

He got a good start on Sunday going into the All-Star break.

Bagwell is in the top 10 among NL leaders in 10 hitting categories including second with 24 home runs, 78 RBIs and 52 extra base hits.

"I'm still not exactly where I want to be," Bagwell said. "I'm drifting forward too much but was better today."

Woods is on roll, on, off golf course

LEMONT, Ill. (AP) — In terms of riches and acclaim, Tiger Woods already has left Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Ben Hogan at the first tee.

The names now being used for comparison: Elvis and the Beatles. That's how big Woods has become. And at 21 years old, his fame can only swell.

"I thought I would achieve this much further down the road," Woods said Sunday after winning the Western Open, his sixth victory in 21 events since turning pro last August. "I thought that would happen after I won a lot of tournaments and got my name up there, but it's been kind of different."

"I guess a lot of it has to do with that the people are interested, therefore the media has to cover it, and then that keeps up the buzz."

The buzz might be deafening next week, when Woods takes his game to Royal Troon for the British Open.

He was told to expect it to be reminiscent of the reception the Beatles got when they arrived in the United States in 1964.

"I don't know what it's going to be like," Woods said. "And I want to be around for the Beatles."

Woods won the Western Open going away, finishing three strokes ahead of his nearest competitor, Frank Nobilo.
