The Bush School of Government, which opened for fall classes on Sept. 1, is designed to provide a professional degree for students interested in public service and government.

The George Bush Presidential Library and Museum will be dedicated Nov. 5-7.

Mexico accuses U.S. of violating migrant workers' right

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Foreign Secretary Jose illegal aliens.

Angel Gurria accused the United States on Mon
"Migrants are not criminals, their treatment day of violating the rights of Mexican migrant workers against standing agreements between the two nations.

We are seriously worried by the emergence of operations that endanger the security and the rights of migrants," he said, referring to stepped up U.S. actions to discourage Mexican cannot be undertaken with police actions,' Gurria said, in testimony before the Mexican

He was repeating earlier complaints about Operation Guardian in California and the more recent Operation Rio Grande to deploy hundreds of troops and law enforcement officers along most of the U.S. border with Mexico Gurria said Mexico is doing its best to a erate with the U.S. in restricting migration example, he said, was new legislation that 104 TH YEA increase punishment of people smuggler lation of their rights.

We will no spare efforts to defend our citizens," Gurria said. "Mexico will do alli to combat extremisms, intolerance and the
