Texas' Brown still questionable

Backup Walton may start vs. UCLA

AUSTIN (AP) — UCLA has opened the season 0-2 for only the second time in the past 26 years.

Traveling to 11th-ranked Texas (1-0), the Bruins will try to avoid making the wrong kind of history Saturday by falling to 0-3.

That has not happened since 1971, when Pepper Rodgers was coach and the Bruins started 0-4 before finishing the year 2-7-1 — the school's worst record in the past 35 years.

"For them, it's a make or break game," said Texas nose tackle Chris Akins. "Coming out 0-3 would be a hard way to start things off. This game could turn around their whole season."

That's what second-year UCLA coach Bob Toledo is hoping.

After going 5-6 in his first year and coming under fire for play calls in the final minutes of narrow losses to Washington State (37-34) and Tennessee (30-24), Toledo could use a victory Saturday to help quiet critics.

"This team is not dead and buried," Toledo said. "We are going to fight and kick and battle. We are going to stick together as a family."

"I'm going to keep all the nice letters I'm getting, so that I can write back at the end of the season and thank them for sticking with us."

Toledo was quick to note that UCLA opened 0-2 in 1993 and went on to finish 8-4 with a berth in the Rose Bowl.

"The last four Rose Bowls UCLA went to, they didn't win the first league game," Toledo said, having done his homework to find some positives amid the gloom.

"This season is not over, and we weren't playing Sisters of the Poor in our first two games. Sometimes, when you get so close and you had it in your grasp, it's tougher."

In UCLA's loss to Washington State, the Bruins went for it and failed on fourth down at the Cougars' 1 late in the game rather than kick a field goal and force overtime. Toledo used the week of practice to chew out the team.

In the wake of the Bruins' loss to Tennessee, in which UCLA failed a fourth-and-3 pass play at the Volunteers' 20 with 27 seconds left, Toledo said he would "be the beat guy" in preparation for Texas.

"When you lose sometimes they get their attention more," Toledo said. "This week is going to be a little different. This week, I'm going to put my arm around them and tell them I love them. I want them to know how much I appreciated their effort last week."

While dismissing the notion of a moral victory following the Tennessee game, Toledo said he was worried about the morale of the team — which rallied from a 21-0 deficit at the beginning of the quarter against the Volunteers.

"We've had two tough losses," Toledo said. "It hurts. I'm in pain and I don't like it. But I'm not going to let them get down."

Texas coach John Mackovic said he will prepare his team with the notion that UCLA could just as easily be 2-0 and ranked in the Top 10. "They'd probably be No. 6 in the country this week if they come out one play in each of those first two games," Mackovic said.

UCLA may catch Texas with starting quarterback James Brown, who missed practice most of the week with a severely bruised left knee suffered in the Longhorns' 41-10 victory over Rutgers.

Mackovic said he will decide on game day whether to start Brown or backup Richard Walton.

"We've got a little bit of a problem in preparing for both quarters because we will play them a little differently," Toledo said. "James Brown is mobile when healthy and a real threat. The other kid (Walton) is a better passer but he's not going to hurt you running."
