Lookin' good

Sophomore running back Dante Hall has been tearing up the competition over the past few weeks, but he knows he can't play football forever. Unlike so many of today's athletes who struggle after their careers are over, Hall has a plan for life after sports.

He wants to open a car wash/beauty salon.

Growing up, the idea of running a car wash/detail shop was something that interested Hall. Then after hearing his mother talk about how much it costs to get her hair done, he realized there could be pretty good money in the hair salon business. "At first I wanted the detail shop," Hall said. "Then as I got older, I wanted the beauty shop. I had to pick one and I couldn't decide so I thought I'll have both. You can get your hair done, get your car washed, come out and you're ready to go."

With any luck Hall's future customers will look as good off the field as he has looked on it. He leads the Big 1
