Women's Tennis Team Thurs

open season in Las Vegy

Staff Writer

The Texas A&M Tennis Team is preparing for their first tournament of the year, the UNLV Invitational. The four teams participating in the tournament are UNLV, BYU, Minnesota and Texas A&M. Kleinecke said it will be exciting to finally play against other teams. They have been practicing for a while and it will be good to show off their hard work.

"It is a great opportunity and it will be tough," he said.

Kleinecke said that adjusting to the loss of some key players and the addition of new ones is always a little rough. "It is tough to take out players like Nancy Dingwall and Julie Beahm," he said. Dingwall was a three-time All-Conference selection and Beahm was a five-time conference champion. Kleinecke said that some people will need to step up and take charge. He is also excited about the addition of Eva Marcial. He thinks she has a great future.

"She is great for the team on and off the court," he said.

Kleinecke is very optimistic about this season and the play of Monica Rebolledo and Vanessa Rooks. He will look to these experienced players for leadership. He also said that Lisa Dingwall has come out this year with a great work ethic and high goals in mind. He feels she will be a great contributor to the team this year.

Diego, Ca., has been playing nis for nine years and is ver

ed about this weekend's ment as well. "We have been practical long, now we are ready to and play," she said. "This good competition, the gi
