Soccer loses to Baylor 2-1 in OT

The No. 3 A&M Soccer Team was stunned by a 2-1 overtime loss to Baylor University, Sunday afternoon, at the rain soaked Baylor Soccer Complex, Baylor's Christina Nguyen received a pass from Britt Talley and scored the Bear's gamewinning goal at the 95:20 mark.

Baylor's Nikki Hales controversial goal at 23:46 gave the Bears an early 1-0 lead. The ball appeared to have been shot into the outside of the net, but the linesman overruled the center officials original call, giving Baylor the advantage.

Freshman forward Nicky Thrasher posted the Aggies' lone goal on a pass from freshman midfielder Katie Offut at the 78:28 mark to send the game into overtime.

With the loss, A&M falls to 12-2-0 overall, 8-1-0 in the Big 12. The Aggies can do no worse than tie for the Big 12 Championship, but with a win or a tie versus Colorado in College Station October 26, A&M can win the trophy outright.
