Aggies lose to Baylor petition ruling body

STEPHEN BOUDREAU staff writer

Not since the Branch Davidian ordeal has there been this much controversy in Waco.

In and Out

The third-ranked Texas A&M Soccer Team was stunned by unranked Baylor this weekend in a dubious 2-1 overtime loss.

The controversy occurred in the 23rd minute. Baylor forward Nikki Hales took a pass from teammate Molly Cameron and scored the first goal of the game.

A&M is protesting the game result to the NCAA and Big 12 appealing that the officials directly violated a rule in the NCAA rule book by allowing play to continue and then going back and changing a decision.

According to the Texas A&M Sports Information Department, an appeal along with a video tape of the incident have been mailed to the governing bodies.

The lone A&M goal was scored in the 78th minute when A&M freshman Nikki Thrasher knotted things up by blasting the ball past the Baylor keeper.

With the results as they stand, A&M suffers their first conference defeat of the season and only their second Big 12 Conference loss in the two-year history of the league. The Aggies fall to 12-2-0 overall and 8-1-0 in league play, while Baylor moves to 10-3-0, 7-2-0.

Aggies Top Tech

On Friday night, the Aggies clinched at least a tie for the Big 12 championship when they marauded the Raiders for a 4-2 victory in Lubbock.

Freshman Allison Peters and senior All-America Bryn Blalack scored two second half goals to break a 2-2 halftime tie.

The Raiders struck first as the Aggies were called for a foul inside the penalty box and Kristy Franz scored the ensuing penalty kick at the 4:12 mark.

Junior forward Sharon Pickering answered with the Aggies' first goal at 7:41 on a pass from Peters.

Tech regained the lead before halftime as Pickering's corner kick from senior Sonia Thompson scored at the 17:22 mark.

The Aggies evened the score before halftime as Pickering's corner kick from senior Sonia Thompson scored at the 17:22 mark.

Peters came out firing in the second half as she lifted the ball to their first lead in the game at the 48:30 mark on a pass from Diana Rowe.

Blalack put the game away in the 83rd minute, taking a pass from freshman Katie Offutt and scoring the game's final goal.

The Aggies outshot Tech 11 and recorded a school record 11 corner kicks.

The Red Raiders fall to 5-6-1 and 4-5-0 in league play. The Aggies can do no worse than tie for the Big 12 championship, but with a win or a draw, they would lead the Big 12.

Player of the Year Nominee Bryn Blalack is one of 15 candidates for the Missouri Athletic Club Sports Foundation Club Player of the Year award, as well as a balloting of coaches of the top-20 teams in this year's season rankings.

Blalack is the only Big 12 Conference representative on the list of nominees. The winner will be announced Jan. 9 in St. Louis.

Other Notes
If the Aggies go on to win the championship it will mark the first time since 1957 that the school since the men's tennis team claimed the Southwestern Conference Championship.

Peters and Blalack have scored 15 of the last 21 Aggie goals. Texas A&M will conclude its seven-game, four-week road trip this weekend when they travel to Maraga, California to take on Mary's College.

Stephen Boudreau is a sports journalist.
