Customer orders are our business.

If we don't have the book you're looking for, we want to make it as easy as possible for you to get it. We can order any one of an additional 200,000 titles from our nationwide distributor network, and have it back in the store, usually within seven days.

Edgar Allan Poe

For children, a 15,000-title library of dreams.

Strolling into our children's department is like—well, like stepping back into your own childhood.

Here's a space as big as most other complete bookstores, full of kid-sized tables and chairs and, of course, all the familiar classics from Dr. Seuss to Mother Goose, all the Caldecott and Newbery award winners, workbooks, learning aids and juvenile fiction—some 15,000 titles in all.

This magical place is also home to weekly storytimes and special treats like children's author visits. Your kids will love it as much as you do.

Lose yourself in our books and crannies.

A Title Wave of Selection!

We invite you to browse through our extraordinary selection of more than 150,000 titles. Wander in and out of sections on literature, poetry, cooking, business, computers and history that are more comprehensive than anything you've ever seen. Our inventory also includes thousands of unusual and hard-to-find titles from independent and university presses. And, of course, we have an extensive selection of books of local and regional interest and by local writers.

We also stock more than 2,500 different domestic and international newspapers, magazines and periodicals.

Books as far as the mind can reach.

We have all the books you'd ever want or just the one you need.

Built by book lovers for book lovers.

At Barnes & Noble, we know there's simply no such thing as a great bookstore without a great staff. That's why we make sure ours is the best. Someone is always readily available to steer you to the right shelf or help you track down that elusive title or author you can't quite recall.

As for the atmosphere of our new store, we consider it to be the book lover's scene. home. Browsers are always welcome here. Chairs and benches scattered throughout the store invite you to sit and stay awhile.

A café right in your neighborhood.

The Barnes & Noble Café is open day and night, serving Starbucks Coffee, sparkling waters, juices and pastries. It's the perfect spot for a literary debate. And if there's a book you think you might like to own, bring it along and make up your mind over a cappuccino.

We're home to what's happening in your community.

Barnes & Noble hosts a variety of literary events ranging from author readings and signings to musical and theatrical performances to cooking demonstrations and craft workshops. Truly, Barnes & Noble is the place where great readers meet great writers.

We're open late and helpful always.

With so many titles—fiction from The Scarlet Letter to The Color Purple, subjects from history to mystery, topics from careers to computers—we have what you're looking for. It's never too late to discover a great book, so come on over after dinner or a movie. Late-night browsers are always welcome here!
