What are you doing after Graduation?

Over 1,000 employers will be on campus this year looking for Aggies. Employer Presentations are information sessions where you learn more about career opportunities with a particular company, including full-time positions and internships. Even if you are not graduating soon, Employer Presentations are a great way to get ideas for your future. Check out our website for times and locations!

Campus Calendar is a publication service that lists all profit student and faculty events and activities. It should be submitted no later than three days in advance of the desired run date. Publication deadlines and policies are not events and should not be run in Campus Calendar. If you have any questions, please call the room at 845-3313.

It continues every day at Smith & Associates, through the expertise of people who ignore constraints or limitations on what they can achieve—who are constantly reaching farther to discover more. These contributions have made us a leader in the global distribution and brokering of semi-conductors and other electronic components to original equipment manufacturers. We're proud of the Texas A&M alumni listed below for joining our organization and taking on the challenges which have made us an "Inc. 500" company.

The SPIRIT of innovation

We are always interested in other bright minds to join this list of professionals. Our entry-level Purchasing and Sales positions don't require a technical degree, just the kind of talent and spirited ingenuity that has made us one of the industry's best. All backgrounds welcome.
