Texas Head Coach John Mackovic is coaching for his job after pointing 3-4 start this season.

Morning News reports coach's job in jeopardy

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas coach John Mackovic said Monday he will not discuss a newspaper's report saying school regents have reached a consensus to fire or reassign him at the end of the season.

“If you're interested in talking about the players or the team or the games, I would be happy to,” Mackovic said at his weekly news conference.

“But I don't expect and don't intend to spend any time talking about myself. I don't think it's in the best interest of anybody. I expect to coach at Texas for many years.”

The Dallas Morning News, citing two unidentified sources, reported Monday that there is enough support among the school's nine-member board of regents to fire or reassign the sixth-year coach at the end of the season.

“It's not true that a decision has been made,” Texas athletic director DeLoss Dodds said.

“We review coaches at the end of the year. We do it the same way with every coach, and it will be done the same way with coach Mackovic,” Dodds said.

Any action by the regents is usually preceded by a recommendation from Dodds, interim UT president Peter Flawn and chancellor William Cunningham. Both Flawn and Cunningham were out of town on Monday and didn't return calls.

Neither did Donald Evans, chairman of the UT Board of Regents.
