Spice Girls pick three music awards

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The light and sassy Spice Girls used their trademark "girl power" to dominate the American Music Awards Monday night, winning three awards and beating out such heavyweights as U2 and The Wallflowers.

The Spice Girls, who were in Ireland preparing for a tour, ruled the pop-rock category, winning the best album award and being named favorite new artist and best group.

Although the all-girl British group has been slammed by critics, that does not affect the American Music Awards, which are based on a national sampling of approximately 20,000 people.

The emotional centerpiece of the show came in a tribute for the ailing Frank Sinatra. His daughter, Nancy, accepted the special Award of Merit.

"I bring you greetings from the coolest guy on the face of the planet next to Puff Daddy — my daddy!" she said.

The three-hour show — broadcast on ABC — featured host Drew Carey and included live performances by Garth Brooks and Boyz II Men, named best soul/rhythm and blues group.

Alabama was named favorite country band, the group's 20th American Music Award — the most for any artist.

"Thanks to all the fans, all the years," said group member Randy Owen said.

Reba McEntire saluted her competitors while accepting for favorite female country artist.

"I do not take it for granted you have nominated me. I am so grateful," said McEntire, who beat out Rimes and Shania Twain.

Julio Iglesias defeated his son, Enrique, to win best Latin artist.

"This is funny because when they tell you that you are competing against you in competition, a little like your brain in place because I adore me," said Iglesias.

In the alternative category, the Mighty Mighty and Sublime.

George Strait won best male country artist with his country album for "Come Love with Me."

Babyface showed his appeal by winning best in two categories: soul/rhythm and blues pop-rock.

"This is another big second award," the singer said as he accepted the award.

Erykah Badu was named soul/rhythm and blues artist of the year.

Sinatra's tribute included crooner Tony Bennett, black-and-white clip of Sinatra back to the 1940s.

Ms. Sinatra accepted for her 82-year-old father, not been seen in public for a heart attack a year ago.
