Henderson is likely to stay as well because of his tremendous upside. Tyrone Corbin also could be included in any Atlanta trade.

Latrell, Be Sure To Write

The hearings concerning Latrell Sprewell versus the NBA are in full swing, but do the Warriors care? At week's end, Golden State was 1-13 with the infamous guard and 7-21 without him.

Game Of The Week

Bulls @ Jazz, 8 p.m. Wed., TBS
The Bulls are out for revenge after their home defeat at the hands of the Jazz. However, this may be more of a task than is evident. The Bulls are below .500 on the road this season, and Utah is hardly an easy place to play. The always-entertaining matchup of Rodman and Malone will provide the sidebar.

Women's tennis team opens season against N. T.

By AL LAZARUS
Staff writer

The Texas A&M Women's Tennis Team plays its first match of the season today against the University of North Texas. The match begins at 1:30 p.m. at the Omar Smith Tennis Center.

The women's team easily handled UNT last year, winning 9-0.

Despite this fact, sophomore Lisa Dingwall said she will be nervous heading into the match.

"I'm always nervous that first match of the season, but I think the nervousness makes me want to go out there and play my hardest," Dingwall said.

Coach Bobby Kleinecke said the first match of the season is always important.

"We are always looking to come out with a lot of momentum, because it's important for us to come out strong and establish ourselves," Kleinecke said.

Kleinecke is quick to point out that this year's

UNT team is very different from the ones easily dispatched last year. "They've only got two people from last year's team, so we really are looking at them as the same team we played last year," Kleinecke said.

Kleinecke said while UNT coach Bobby Klein is an inspired Aggie team, he is not sure what will happen.

"Usually we have not come out strong," Kleinecke said. "We are always excited our first
