from staff and wire reports

Aggies streak by foes in Arlington

The Texas A&M Baseball Team won the UT-Arlington/Arlington Morning News Invitational Tournament this weekend, going undefeated in three games. A&M opened the tournament with a 7-0 defeat of Arkansas State on Friday night and continued their success on Saturday with a 17-3 thrashing of Oral Roberts. A&M closed out the weekend by beating the host school, UT-Arlington, 10-6 to take the tournament championship and improve their season record to 7-0.

In yesterday's game, junior center fielder Jason Tyner broke New York Yankees second baseman Chuck Knoblauch's career stolen base record of 83.

The Aggies return to Olsen Field Tuesday for a 1 p.m. doubleheader against Dallas Baptist University.

Softball a success at UTA tournament

The Texas A&M Softball Team advanced all the way to the semifinals of the UT-Arlington-Pepsi Intercollegiate Classic this weekend before falling to 11th-ranked Oklahoma State yesterday, 7-3.

In the quarterfinals, A&M beat Baylor 3-1 behind a strong performance from freshman pitcher Ashley Lewis, who earned her second victory of the tournament, allowing only three hits and striking out four.

The Aggies opened round-robin play Friday night with a 5-3 victory over Tulsa, and a 3-1 triumph over UT-Arlington. On Saturday, A&M handed Mississippi a 3-2 loss and knocked off Stephen F. Austin 2-1 to win its pool and advance to the elimination rounds of the tournament.

Men's basketball downed by Tigers

The Texas A&M Men's Basketball Team (6-16, 0-12) lost to the Missouri Tigers (14-11, 6-6) 73-60 Saturday night in Columbia, Mo. The loss is the Aggies' 13th straight overall and 12th straight loss in conference.

The Aggies are one loss away from equaling the A&M record for consecutive losses of 14, which was set in 1944 during World War II.

Missouri was led by guard John Woods' outside shooting. With only eight active players, A&M was forced to play zone defense to conserve energy. Woods took advantage of the zone, going 5 of 10 from beyond the three-point arc and scoring a team-leading 21 points. Also scoring in double figures for Missouri were Kelly Thames with 14, Brian Graver with 11 and Monte Hargrave with 10 points and 13 rebounds.

The Aggies were led by freshman guard Michael Schmidt. Schmidt had his best shooting night as an Aggie going 8 for 11 from the field on his way to a career- and game-high 24 points. Schmidt was one of only three Aggies who scored in double figures as A&M shot only 37 percent from the field. Junior forward Shanne Jones scored 14 points and sophomore forward Aaron Jack scored 12 points to go along with 9 rebounds. The Aggies' next game is Wednesday in Austin against the University of Texas.

Track flying high after Air Force

Last weekend the Texas Track and Field Team (minus the distance runners) traveled to Colorado Springs, Colo., to compete in the Colorado Springs Sprint Classic at the campus of the Air Force Academy. The Aggies finished the meet in impressive fashion, setting several school records and obtaining nine more qualifications for the NCAA Championships.

Senior Adrien Sawyer continued his success by finishing third in the 55-meter hurdles, Her time of 1:24.95 set a Texas A&M record. Anjanette Kirklund in 1995. Sawyer has already broken three school records this indoor season. Kirklund finished second in the 55-meter hurdles, finishing in 7.70.

Senior Larry Wade continued his 1998 domination of the hurdles, winning the 55-meter hurdles in a second straight meet in a school record time of 7.08. This broke an old record of 7.18 set by Rico Bucknor in 1990. Junior Deshaun Powell placed eighth in the hurdles with his time of 7.37.

Women's, men's tennis split at LSU

The Texas A&M Men's Tennis Teams played three matches against LSU this weekend. The women's team won two of the matches and the men's team losing 4-3.

The 38th-ranked women's team was tied with No. 41 LSU 3-3 heading into doubles play thanks to a comeback victory by sophomore Kathryn Scott. Also victorious in singles play for the Aggies were senior Vanessa Rooks and freshman Marcial Rooks and sophomore Dingwall won in doubles 8-1.

The 33rd-ranked men's team began, thanks to doubles victories senior Carlos Tori and freshman Shuon Madden, 8-6, and Junior Horan and freshman Durlew Caradima, 8-6. Horan and Madden also were victorious in their singles matches, but the Aggies could not manage another point losing their other four singles matches.
