RODEO

"I love the atmosphere and the people are so nice," Fehler said. "You meet the neatest people and make new friends also."

"This year, I am taking business cards to hand out to people," she said.

To most people, it might seem like the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo is no more than a bunch of students playing around with livestock and listening to a wide variety of music.

Turns out, it is a great way for participants to meet a few fellow Aggies, make business contacts and have fun.

Equal treatment needed for actors

MONTEREY PARK, Calif. (AP) — Work-release must cease for Robert Downey Jr.

Downey

So says the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department, which opposes any more escorted excursions for the actor, who is serving a six-month jail sentence for drug violations.

Downey has twice been allowed to leave jail for a day to work on movies. The most recent trip came Feb. 17, when deputies escorted him to Paramount Studios to do some recording.

"It's too disruptive and not the way to operate a jail for the convenience of any inmate, no matter who that might be," Sheriff Sherman Block said Wednesday.

Judge Lawrence A. Mira ordered Downey, 32, to pay for the escorts.

After a series of drug arrests and second chances, the actor was sent to jail Dec. 8 for violating probation by failing to stay clean and sober.

On Feb. 13, Downey suffered a slight cut on his nose after fighting with another inmate. He was moved to another jail across the street.

Spice Girls' show canceled in India

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The Spice Girls have no plans to perform at an Indian archaeological site famed for its erotic sculptures, a spokeswoman for the group said Thursday.

A newspaper report about the British pop group's planned performance in November in the central Indian town of Khajuraho drew protests from a leading exponent of the classical dance form called Bharatanatyam.

"The profile of the Spice Girls does not match that of the temples," Geeta Chandran said last week. "Eroticism sans spirituality will be reduced to pornography."

On Thursday, Sharon Hanley of the London-based agency that handles public relations for the group said: "That story broke here a week ago and it was not true."

Archaeological authorities have barred even Indian classical dancers from performing at the temples of Khajuraho, 300 miles southeast of New Delhi.

"QUOTE OF THE DAY"

This Week's Theme: Should student leaders be paid or receive tuition waivers for their services?

"I think they should not be [paid] because it should be intrinsic motivation. They should be leaders because that is what they believe."
