

AGGIE SPORTS BRIEFS

from staff and wire reports

Cotton Bowl head named from A&M

The Cotton Bowl Athletic Association named Texas A&M University graduate Fred McClure as chairperson for the bowl. McClure served as one of the vice-chairpersons on the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl Board of Directors for the last two years.

He served as the Texas A&M Student Body President while earning his degree in Agricultural Economics in 1976.

McClure also filled the role of Association of Former Students Vice President and was appointed as a member of the Board of Regents in 1995 by Governor Bush.

"For 62 years, this game has been a part of America's greatest sports traditions," McClure said. "No matter where you go, when the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl Classic is mentioned, Dallas and the state of Texas automatically come to mind."

This game is an integral part of the fabric of our city and state. Thanks to the Classic's glorious history and tradition, we have a tremendous story to tell."

Houston Cougars ready for Aggies

The Texas A&M Baseball Team heads to Houston today to face the University of Houston Cougars. The game is the first of a home-and-home series this season with UH.

The Aggies are looking to get back on the winning track after losing to the University of Houston on Sunday.

The Ags took two of the Sooners to improve all record to 21-10.

Last season A&M lost game series with Houston took a victory at their home.

The Aggies lost in Houston but rebounded with a 6-1 in College Station.
