

Women's tennis hammered by No. 1 Stanford

By PHILIP W. PETER
Staff writer

In a wind-shortened match, the Texas A&M Women's Tennis Team (11-6) managed only a single victory in Thursday's 5-1 loss to the visiting Stanford Cardinal, the No. 1 team in the nation.

The lone victory was posted by freshman Eva Marcial who beat Stanford's Marisa Mallennan in straight sets, 7-6, 7-6. Mallennan and Marcial traded games throughout the second set. But in the tie-breaker, Marcial used pure power to keep the slower Mallennan moving and finished her off with a drop shot just over the net to finish her off. Coach Bobby Kleinecke said Marcial did a good job of battling not only Mallennan, but also the wind. "Anytime you get a win against the No. 1 team in the nation, you've done a good job," Kleinecke said, "and I want to praise Eva for that. She did a great job today of getting a lot of balls in in a tough situation." This weekend, A&M will not have to play a team ranked as highly as Stanford, but they back-to-back matches Saturday against Iowa State. Kleinecke said his team plans on competing for the conference. "These next three matches in conference are big for us," Kleinecke said. "We're 3-3 in the middle and it's good to get here in the middle and it's good to get some conference matches again. The Missouri match starts at 8:30. Iowa State match starts at 2 p.m., both at the Smith Tennis Center."
