ackles the court

LONDON (AP) — Ivana Trump Tuesday won the latest round in her legal battle over the bill for a lavish birthday party in 1993.

Three appeals judges ruled that Donald Trump's former wife can continue to contest the outstanding $10,725 balance of the $60,225 bill from Lady Elizabeth Anson, a party planner and cousin of the queen.

In 1996, Lady Elizabeth obtained a High Court judgment against Trump after she failed to meet a deadline for filing court papers.

On Tuesday, the judges sent the case to a county court for a decision.

Lady Elizabeth booked an entire swank hotel for a whole weekend for a surprise 50th birthday party for Trump's then-fiance — and now ex-husband — Riccardo Mazzuchelli.

Trump, who paid a $16,500 deposit, disputed the final bill, arguing that her agreement with Lady Elizabeth was for a party costing something under $41,250.

Instead people were searching for the body of Jesus of Nazareth. Was he an actual person? Did he rise from the dead? Did he claim to be God? Find out about this remarkable person by contacting one of us, or by seeing the website www.leaderu.com/TellMeMore.

FACULTY FRIENDS

John 3:16 reads "For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life." We are a group of professors, instructors, lecturers, and administrators united by their common experience that Jesus Christ provides intellectually and spiritually satisfying answers to life's most important questions. We are available to students, faculty, and staff who might like to discuss such questions with us. If you would like to be a part of the FACULTY FRIENDS ad, please contact Murphy Smith 5-3108, Steve Crouse 5-3997, or Lee Lowery 5-4395.
