Watkins hires two assistant coaches

Steve McClain and Bobby Kummer have been hired as assistant basketball coaches at Texas A&M, Coach Melvin Watkins announced Friday.

The 35-year-old McClain served as an assistant at TCU for the last four years under Billy Tubbs. He previously coached in the junior college ranks for 12 years, including a three-year stint as head coach at Hutchinson (Kan.) Community College, where he built a 91-16 record and led the team to the 1994 NJCAA national championship.

The 23-year-old Kummer served as an assistant on Watkins staff at North Carolina-Charlotte the last two seasons after graduating from UNCC in 1996. Kummer was a four-year letterman as a player at UNCC and earned Metro Conference Student-Athlete of the year in basketball in 1995.

Watkins expects to fill the final assistant coaching position early next week.

Softball splits on Oklahoma journey

The Texas A&M Softball Team (32-22-1, 6-8) completed its tour of Oklahoma coming home with a split in both doubleheaders.

On Saturday, the Aggies defeated the No. 8 Oklahoma State Cowgirls in game one 3-1 and then dropped game two 2-1. In the win, Ashley Lewis threw seven innings, giving up one run on four hits and striking out three for her 12th win of the season.

The Aggies were leading OSU 1-0 going into the seventh, but gave up two runs and lost 2-1 with Amy Vining falling to 10-5 on the season with the loss.

On Sunday, A&M split their doubleheader with Oklahoma losing the first game 1-0 in nine innings. Lewis threw 8.2 innings before giving up the winning run to fall to 12-8 on the year.

However, the Aggies bounced back in game two to defeat the Sooners 3-1 with Vining throwing a complete game for her 11th win.

In the OSU series, the Aggie offense was led by shortstop Jamie Smith who went 3-6 with two runs and one RBI. Stephanie Trumbull added a hit and two RBIs in A&M's 3-1 victory over OU.
