Jazz halt Houston's upset bid 84-70; move on to face Robinson and Spurs

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — The Utah Jazz were missing something in their opening-round series against the Houston Rockets.

Who knew it was Greg Ostertag? Karl Malone had 31 points and 15 rebounds as the Jazz defeated the Rockets 84-70 and advanced to the second round of the playoffs. Ostertag made it possible with seven blocked shots, five rebounds and a tenacious fourth-quarter defensive performance.

Ostertag blocked five shots in the fourth quarter alone and helped hold Hakeem Olajuwon to 1-for-5 shooting and Kevin Willis to two points in the fourth quarter. The Rockets played without Charles Barkley, out with a torn triceps muscle.

Utah, which holds home-court advantage throughout the playoffs, avoided becoming just the second No. 1 seed to lose an opening-round playoff series. The Jazz will meet the San Antonio Spurs in the conference semifinals starting Tuesday in Salt Lake City.

The Jazz never trailed in the game, but the Rockets never let Utah take a large lead, either. The Rockets closed to 65-62 on Eddie Johnson's jumper with 8:21 to close it out.

Jeff Hornacek had 15 points for Utah, nine in the first quarter, and Bryon Russell had 10 as the only other Jazz players in double figures.

Heated playoff series ends in Miami with visiting Knicks advancing, 98-81

MIAMI (AP) — It was a knockout punch, a throat-slitting and a victory borne of revenge, all rolled into one haymaker of a game.

The New York Knicks took control early, withstood all the fight the Heat had left in them and cold-cocked Miami out of the playoffs with a 98-81 victory over the Heat on Sunday in Game 5 of their first-round series.

The Knicks, who wanted to avenge the disastrous ending to the 1996-97 season in the same building where they sealed their own fate by leaving the bench in a Game 5 brawl, accomplished exactly what they set out to do. And now they're in the second round against the Indiana Pacers.

The victory made easier by the absence of Miami's Alonzo Mourning, who was suspended along with Larry Johnson and Chris Mills of the Knicks for a fight at the end of Game 4. But it was no walkover, either.

New York withstood a 21-3 run that turned a 20-point lead into a two-point game with 7:16 remaining in the fourth. The Knicks answered back almost instantly with a 19-7 run that left Heat fans heading to the exits before the clock even ticked inside two minutes.

Allan Houston scored 30 points, John Starks scored 22, Charles Oakley had 18 and Charlie Ward hit a crucial 3-point shot that killed Miami's rally.

Ward also had 14 assists and five steals, and Buck Williams had 12 points and 14 rebounds as New York took advantage of Mourning's absence to dominate inside.

Tim Hardaway led Miami with 21 points, but he was not a factor for long stretches. The Heat was outbounded 43-34 and shot just 14-for-25 at the line.

BASEBALL

"Baylor pulled away, but we kept plugging away and minding our own business," Johnson said. "I don't think anyone was watching us very closely; we kind of snuck in the back door. I wouldn't want to go through the season again and say we'd win the championship, but I'll take it this way." In the afterthought that was Sunday's game, Baylor starter Kip Wells struck out 10 A&M batters, allowing six hits in a 5-2 win. A&M scored in the first off a Tyner leadoff double and another double by Kuzmic. Baylor then got three home runs, two from Nelson, before Kuzmic scored on a Scheschuk ground ball after hitting a triple in the ninth.

The conference title will give A&M the top seed in the Big 12 tournament, which will be played May 14-17 in Oklahoma City.

May grads. Congratulations. Have you...

Picked up your '97 Aggieland?

If you ordered a 1997 Aggieland yearbook and haven't picked it up, stop by room 015 (basement) of the Reed McDonald Building between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Please bring ID.
