Hulk Hogan and The Wrestling Boot Band

This little piece of gold shows Hulk Hogan is not only a world champion wrestler, but a world champion singer as well. He shows fans the highs and lows of his emotional depth.

Backed up by unyielding The Wrestling Boot Band, Hogan earns a world title in the studio. Together they form the ultimate aural tag team.

The Hulkster is body slamming the funk on tracks like "Hulk Rules" and "I Want to Be a Hulkimaniac." He raps in the delight that is "Hulkster's in the House."

Yet the big guy shows his sensitive side in the ballad "Hulkster in Heaven." Watch out, Babyface. Hulk is poised to take over the American pop scene. He's mom and apple pie, he's a gun rack in every pickup truck, he's professional wrestling.

Hulk Hogan is the epitome of Americana, and no song illustrates it more than "American Mad should buy this album for no other reason than it has more uses of the word hulk, than any other in one date. Like the liner notes say, this album "brings a new dimension to the Hulkamania phenomenon you thought nothing would top those frozen Hulkcicles.
