Summer movies still strong

Six Days, Seven Nights
Starring Harrison Ford and Anne Heche
Playing at Post Oak Cinema

What do you get when you take pixie-cute Anne Heche and action-star Harrison Ford and strand them on a gorgeous deserted Tahitian island?

A pixie-cute, action-adventure love story that actually makes sense. Sort of.

In Six Days, Seven Nights, Robin (Anne Heche), a beautiful and feisty magazine editor, and Quinn (Harrison Ford), a crusty but heroic pilot, get stranded on an island together and end up battling pirates (and each other) in an attempt to make it back to civilization.

The plot is simple. Robin and her boyfriend, Frank (David Schwimmer), go on a six day, seven night vacation to a Tahitian island.

Their plans for a romantic escape are cut short when Robin's boss asks her to fly to the main island for a photo shoot.

Robin hires Quinn to fly her, but after being hit by lightning during a storm, the two are forced to crash land on an island somewhere south of Tahiti.

Alone and facing dangers, Robin and Quinn have to find a way home.

While the plot has been recycled more times than Madonna's image, the chemistry between Heche and Ford makes this movie a winner.

The scenery in the movie is breathtaking. Unfortunately, shots of the landscape are often accompanied by endless amounts of dangerously cheesy music.

If you can get past the music, Six Days, Seven Nights is a good bet for a good time. (A-)
- Manisha Parekh

Out of Sight
Starring George Clooney and Jennifer Lopez
Playing at Hollywood 16

A small movie by summer standards, Out of Sight delivers big on entertainment.

The movie, based on the Elmore Leonard novel of the same name, deals with the star-crossed attraction of bank robber George Clooney and federal marshal Jennifer Lopez. The two meet up when Clooney escapes from a Florida prison and kidnaps Lopez.

Instead of the usual revulsion and hate a kidnaper victim feels for a kidnapper, Lopez is strangely attracted to the man. The feeling is mutual. Clooney hangs around Florida pining over lady law.

This irritates his bank busting buddy, Ving Rhames, since the duo are supposed to be heading to Detroit for a big score.

Out of Sight is a smart, sharp film with some great performances. The main plot could have been dered lame, but the chemistry between Lopez and Clooney is, well, out of sight.

Lopez is gorgeous as the tough but tender federal marshal and Clooney exhibits the charm magazines always talking about. (A)

Can't Hardly Wait
Starring Jennifer Love Hewitt and Ethan Embry
Playing at Hollywood 16

Can't Hardly Wait is a surprisingly entertaining teen comedy. Although it's no Breakfast Club film will leave audiences satisfied.

The setting is the night of graduation. The wild and crazy teens have gathered for the last party.

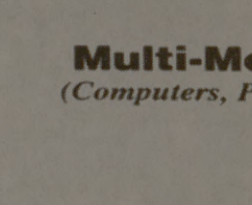

It is at this party that Ethan Embry plans to announce his four-year infatuation with high school queen Jennifer Love Hewitt. She just broke up with her dumb jock boyfriend and is planning the "sensitive dweeb" express.

This is the weakest part of the movie, but the plots are the saving graces.

Seth Green, Lauren Ambrose and Charlie Korsmo are good in supporting roles. (B)
