In the world of comedy, Berle's son laughs last

NEW YORK (AP) — Milton Berle's son is circulating a proposal for a tell-all biography that his father might find as funny as a heart attack.

The New York Post reported Monday that several publishers have been reviewing a draft of the book, which portrays the comic as an absentee father, domestic tyrant, chronic gambler and a world-class womanizer.

In Near You, 36-year-old Bill Berle writes that he lost his virginity when his father hired a Las Vegas showgirl to disguise herself as a maid and seduce him.

"After that, when Berle and his son shared hotel suites, Milton would finish having sex with a woman and then shout into Billy's room, 'Billy, you want her now?'" the book's co-author, Brad Lewis, told the newspaper.

Buddy Arnold, a writer and producer for Berle, said he had not seen the draft. He said of the general criticisms: "I don't believe any of them. To me they are false."

Berle is about to celebrate his 90th birthday with charity parties in Los Angeles this month and in New York this fall.

producer Bill Kenwright said Monday.

Although contracts have yet to be signed, Sir Peter Hall's production, with Madonna as the sexually voracious Maggie the Cat, is expected to begin rehearsals after Madonna completes her role in the film version of the musical Chicago.

MADONNA

The Williams play will mark Madonna's first stage appearance since David Mamet's Speed the Plow on Broadway a decade ago.

Madonna is expected to commit herself to the role for 20 weeks.

Ohio names park after television series veteran

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The park where M-A-S-H actor Jamie Farr once trolled for dates and dreamed of stardom has been renamed in his honor.

"I wanted to be an actor, a famous actor, and I wanted my hometown of Toledo to be proud of me," TV's Cpl. Max Klinger told about 400 admirers Sunday. "Jamie Farr Park is certainly a highlight of my life and career."

Farr said he used to go to the canteen in the former Riverside Park in the 1940s to meet girls, dance and brawl.

Toledo also has a park named for another hometown boy, Danny Thomas.

Actor looks to quench desire to play a cowboy

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Dennis Farina has plum parts in two big summer movies but is still looking for his dream role.

"A cowboy," he said. "I'd love to do a Western."

The mustachioed actor is best known for playing gangster types. He appears this summer in Out of Sight, an Elmore Leonard tale. Later this summer, he plays a colonel in Steven Spielberg's Saving Private Ryan.

Infamous Rodman crashes rock concert

DALLAS (AP) — Dennis Rodman might want to stick with his regular line of work.

The Chicago Bulls star decided to jam with Pearl Jam during a concert Sunday night. Guzzling wine from a bottle, a shirtless, shoeless Rodman leaped on stage and tried to sing along during Alive and Spin the Black Circle.

After the stage crew finally cut off Rodman's microphone, lead singer Eddie Vedder said to Rodman: "I'm guessing you've been drinking for about three days straight."

Armageddon fails to live up to Deep Impact's power

LOS ANGELES (AP) — It isn't the end of the world, but Disney's "Armageddon" still fell short of expectations, debuting at $36.1 million — below last Fourth of July action releases and this season's first sky-is-falling picture, "Deep Impact," final figures showed Monday.
