Tripping Daisy Jesus Hits Like The Atom Bomb Island Records

"Waited A Light Year," one of the songs from the new Tripping Daisy album and the time it seems it took the band to release another album, proves to be a waste of material on this 15-track compilation of mirrored guitar riffs and age-old drum beats.

And now that the music of the album has been covered (there really isn't much to say about hearing the same beat over and over again), the focus turns to the lyrics.

"When we were friends / This I know / I waited a long time ago / I wondered where we left off when we were friends / Sold to me for a life / I want her / Bop, bop, bop, bop / La, la, la, la." These are the only lyrics that make up the sixminute creation "Waited A Light Year" - not exactly a masterpiece

This track doesn't kill the album, however. "Mechanical Breakdown" features the brilliant phrase, "I was born a self-styled crusader in an amazing race of human elevators

These are the kind of lyrics one would expect from such a band with talent that has yet to reach its full potential. Sure the band is a recognized name in the music industry, but these days, unless one has the imaginative spark to be as inventive as Tricky, a band has no
