Sosa slams 61,62 for tie

CHICAGO (AP) — Goodbye Babe, so long Roger. Slammin' Sammy hit two more homers to tie Mark McGwire — and now they're in the greatest home run derby of all time.

Sammy Sosa hit Nos. 61 and 62 against the Milwaukee Brewers on Sunday to match the record McGwire had set five days earlier.

With two powerful swings on a spectacular and wild afternoon at Wrigley Field, Sosa passed Babe Ruth and Roger Maris.

Sosa and McGwire now have two weeks left in their race for the most treasured record in baseball in one of the sport's most unforgettable seasons.

"It's unbelievable. It was something that even I can't believe I was doing," Sosa said following the Cubs' 11-10, 10-inning victory. "It can happen to two people, Mark and I."

Sosa, who trailed McGwire 24-9 in late May, homered off Bronswell Patrick in the fifth inning, sending an 0-1 pitch 480 feet into the street behind the left-field fence at Wrigley Field.

He hit another 480-foot homer in the ninth, a solo shot off Eric Plunk.

That one dropped Ruth into fourth place on the single-season list with 60, which he hit in 1927.

Maris hit 61 homers in 1961 for a record that McGwire broke Tuesday against the Cubs in St. Louis.

Now, amazingly, a mark that had stood for 37 years has been passed twice in less than a week.

With tears and sweat running down his face as he sat in the dugout after his second triumphant tour around the bases, Sosa came out for three emotional curtain calls.

Fans littered the field with paper cups and other debris while chanting "Sam-mee! Sam-mee!" causing a delay that lasted six minutes.

"I don't usually cry, but I cry inside. I was blowing kisses to my mother, I was crying a little bit," Sosa said.

Aikman sidelined with fractured collarbone, will miss 4 to 8

DENVER (AP) — It was hardly the kind of punishing hit that might have sent Troy Aikman to the sideline with another concussion. The innocent dive turned out to be even worse.

Aikman is expected to miss 4-8 weeks after fracturing his collarbone in the second quarter of the Dallas Cowboys' 42-23 loss to the Denver Broncos on Sunday.

Aikman, who hasn't missed a start because of injury since Dec. 4, 1994, avoided a direct hit, but broke the left clavicle when he landed awkwardly on a 6-yard scramble near the sideline.

"It's disappointing, no question," said Aikman, his left arm resting in a Cow-boy-blue sling.

"I've been fortunate to get through these last three seasons healthy, and now to be faced with it again this year, especially with the way things have gone through frustration. Aikman feared losing his job to another man. As he nears the end of his career, Aikman and his wife, Billie, are in a divorce. Aikman and his wife, Billie, are in a divorce. Aikman and his wife, Billie, are in a divorce.
