Tiki ineligible for UNT

STAFF AND WIRE REPORTS

Texas A&M running back D'Andre Hardeman will remain suspended for Saturday's game against the University of North Texas while school and NCAA officials try to determine his eligibility.

Athletics Director Wally Groff declined to say Tuesday what Hardeman's case involved. He said university officials were looking into the case and Hardeman would be sidelined until the issue is resolved.

HARDEMAN

Coach R. C. Slocum suspended Hardeman before Saturday's 24-6 victory over Southern Mississippi. Hardeman scored three touchdowns in the Aggies' 28-7 victory over Louisiana Tech.

The Bryan-College Station Eagle reported Tuesday that Hardeman may have been given an incorrect grade in a course, raising questions about his eligibility. Consequently, A&M may have to forfeit its win over Tech. "I guess there's always that possibility just like anything else," Groff said.

Slocum refused to comment on Hardeman's situation due to the Buckley Amendment, an NCAA rule prohibiting university officials from commenting on student-athletes' grades.

"I really don't have a lot of discussion about what happened, whose fault it was," Slocum said. "It would serve no purpose for me to discuss my opinions about the issue. There are a very few things that I don't talk about, or won't talk about. But I do get some situations that I can't talk about."

Hardeman, a senior, was A&M's leading rusher through the first two games with 105 yards and scored four touchdowns this season.

Hardeman holds the school record with a 95-yard touchdown run against Baylor in 1996. He is also seventh on A&M's career touchdown list.

Ja'Mar Toombs, who made his first career start against Southern Miss, will be Hardeman's replacement. Due to an injury to junior fullback Jason Bragg, former walk-on Will Simpson will be Toombs' backup.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Madden proceeds to qualifying final

Texas A&M sophomore Shuon Madden advanced to the final round of qualifying Tuesday in the 1998 T. Rowe Price National Clay Court Championships in Baltimore.

Madden defeated Danny Erez of the University Nevada-Las Vegas 6-7, 6-1, 6-1 in the qualifying round of 64 Tuesday.

Madden, who earned All-Big 12 honors in singles and doubles as a freshman, will face No. 72 Marco Baron of Mississippi State in the round of 32 Wednesday morning.

Nguyen named to Good Works team

Texas A&M senior linebacker Dat Nguyen was named to the 1998 American Football Coaches Association Good Works Team Tuesday.

The Good Works Team honors athletes who show exceptional dedication to community service and to the improvement of the communities in which they live.

"The Good Works Team attempts to recognize those student-athletes who go above and beyond in service to others," Grant Teaff, AFCA Executive Director said.
