SPORTS IN BRIEF

Aramburo captures singles tennis

Juan Aramburo, a junior Texas A&M men's tennis player, captured the singles title at the Tournament in Beaumont. Aramburo finished with 11-0 in the semifinals. He defeated Jorge Aldrete of Baylor (5), 7-6 (1) and then beat Collins of Rice in the final, 6-4 and 6-2. Aramburo won from a breakdown in set versus Collins to win.

Golf team finishes 12th at Invitational

The 12-ranked women's team carded a final round and finished 12th at the Jones Intercollegiate Invitational Championship Course at the University of New Mexico. No. 5-ranked California won the team, finishing one stroke ahead of TCU. TCU's Angela Starling was the individual Crown of 75-68-71-214, two ahead of USC's Jennifer. The defending NCAA champion Freshman Anna Jorgensen (82-76-233) and junior Becker (78-80-75-233) Aggies, tying for 24th place. Other A&M scores were more Mimi Epps tied for 86-79-73-238, Marta Ostos tied for 81-80-241 and senior Kames 86th at 86-82-82.

McCown

McCown finished his career-high 167 yards on 11 completions with touchdowns. He also rushed the ball 12 times, finishing with 56 yards. Offensive coordinator Kragthorpe said McCown seemed to be just what was needed right before the half. "Randy did a good job," said McCown. "There were some where he dropped back they covered it [the [his scrambling] ignited the team and got the crowd. We were looking for a spark."

COLE

"I think he [Cole] really did a good job," McCown said. "He makes a great catch, and everybody knows about it." McCown found Cole on a 52-yard touchdown. Cole adjusted to the underthrown pass, jumping over a UNT defensive back and pulling the ball in, despite a pass-interference penalty on the defensive back. Cole's third touchdown A&M up 21-3. Slocum said the team was to use play-action pass to open up the offense, and he thought Cole was terrific. "It looked like Chris pretty well," Slocum said. "I thought those were a couple great catches. I feel good. We were able to take advantage of them ganging up on the pass." A&M also had to deal with Tiki Hardeman's distraction. McCown said the team put the situation behind it. "We're sad we lost a mate, but we've got to plug, plug," McCown said. "I can't dwell on that too much. I think we did a good job of getting out and trying to get behind us and playing well." McCown finished 11-4-167 yards, but Slocum was to downplay the possible back controversy. "I think too much is made of that," Slocum said. "That was to play the best quarterback we had. Randy deserved to play more than he's playing." The A&M offense gained yards against UNT, 247 yards which came in the air. All but one 653 yards of total offense coming into the UNT game. "I was pleased that some of the passing game looked better," Slocum said. "We needed to become a little more balanced [offensively]."
