Brown says starting quarterback for Texas yet to be determined

AUSTIN (AP) — University of Texas coach Mack Brown said Monday he has not determined who will start at quarterback Saturday against Baylor.

"We will make a hard decision based on what will help us win," Brown said. "We are going to make the decision on the best player."

BROWN

Texas (4-2, 2-1 Big 12) began the year with senior Richard Walton calling signals. But Walton broke a bone in his throwing hand in the Longhorns' second game against UCLA and has been sidelined since.

Redshirt freshman Major Applewhite then stepped in, throwing for seven touchdowns in the four games he has started. Brown said the only people who think there is a quarterback controversy are the fans.

"One of the things in a football fan's mind that is a lot of fun is a quarterback controversy. It's like a dog around raw meat. This is good stuff. Everybody has made (it) a bigger issue than this really is," the coach said.

Women's Sports Foundation names Cooper, Kwan Sportswomen of the Year

NEW YORK (AP) — Cynthia Cooper is eying a third WNBA title next summer. Michelle Kwan is dreaming of an Olympic gold medal in 2002.

Both those goals will take time. But Monday, the basketball player and the figure skater were honored as Sportswomen of the Year by the Women's Sports Foundation.

Cooper, the two-time league MVP on the Houston Comets, was chosen in the team category. Kwan, the silver medalist at the Nagano Olympics, was chosen in the individual category.

Known for her "raise the roof" gesture, Cooper scored 23 points to lead Houston to its second consecutive WNBA title over Phoenix last month. She also earned her second scoring title, averaging 22.7 points a game.

After a 13-year professional basketball career in Spain and Italy and dominating the WNBA, Cooper is looking ahead, on the court and beyond. "I'd like to be a general manager, maybe the next president of the WNBA, maybe a broadcaster," the 35-year-old guard said. "Maybe a three-peat. Hey, Walton, who passed up yards and one TD in the opener against New Mexico, threw some last week expected to play some Baylor (2-4, 1-3), Brown said.

"We will watch him and see. Last week would not have started he wasn't ready," Brown adding that he is considering look at both.

"Major has played well, we have been pleased with his attitude, his confidence, and the composure shown. It will very likely we feel like he will be a second game against Baylor."

"Some want Richard Walton, some want Major Applewhite and some want Mack Brown. I think he is a senior and this year; some want Major because he is our future. The most important thing is that we want to win and are 5-2 after the weekend."

Applewhite said he and Walton and that his friends, but he expects Saturday's game. "I am preparing to like I will be the Applewhite said. Brown and Coach (C) will make the decision. I thought he should start the second quarter."

Michael Jordan won the onships, I want to be like Cooper became the first player to reach 1,000 points in July. The Comets 15 straight games, led by Kwan in scoring and defense, finished the regular season 22-10.

After winning NCAA Southern California in 1988, Cooper headed to the 1989, Cooper headed to the because there was no women's pro league back then. Two years ago, Cooper was diagnosed with cancer, and Cooper is grateful near her while she is through chemotherapy.

"If I regret anything career, I regret spending years overseas away from mom," she said. "I'm knowing we're taking some of her pain and concern for her fight against cancer by the success having in the WNBA."

Kwan had a strong performance at the Nagano Olympic but the gold medal went to teammate Tara Lipinski, who since turned pro. That has looking toward Salt Lake City.

The goal was Reynolds on the season. Reynolds has scored six points for the season. The Aggies next game is against the University of Wyoming Wednesday at 7 p.m. at the Aggie Soccer Complex.

Michael Taglienti is a sports management consultant.

SOCCER

She's a Player
The player of the week is sophomore midfielder Amber Reynolds.
Reynolds scored a goal in the Aggies 3-0 defeat of the Colorado Buffaloes.

RUNNERS

Bonn, the younger brother of A&M freshman runner Kristy Bonn, is one of A&M's most sought-after recruits this season.

Hartman will travel to California for recruiting purposes this weekend to speak with a potential national-caliber recruit for his women's squad.
Klein High School coach Phil Reidel should start receiving paychecks from Texas A&M Track and Field. His Klein program has produced four current women (sophomore Brooke Edwards, and freshmen Melissa Gulli, Sarah Shauger and Leslie Zak) as well as redshirt senior Scott Lengefeld while he was the coach at Pasadena Dobie High School.

That is about one of every eight runners on the roster. Sophomore Chuck Cusimano has the strangest reason for having ing difficulty running last end's race.

"I was the only Cajun A&M's Louisiana runners there," Cusimano said. "I'm working all alone."

Runners of the Week
Freshman Brandon Bass and sophomore Lauren Cooper are this week's runners for respective performances in weekend's Texas A&M Invitational.

Beasley guided the men's team to an eighth-place finish in 26 minutes and 55 seconds over the 8000-meter (5 mile equivalent) loop.

Crawford continued her recent hot streak by placing second on the team and 28th overall in a time of 19:13 over the 5000-meter (3.1 mile) course.

Tom Kennedy is a sports management consultant.
