Journalism Open House
Thursday Jan. 28, 1998
5 to 7 p.m.
MSC Flagroom

Students interested in the field of journalism should attend the Journalism Open House on Thursday. This is a chance to join organizations that can help you land a GOOD job after graduating, talk with professionals to find out what skills you need, to gain valuable experience while attending school and meet with your professors.

Top ten things overheard in the Journalism Department:

- "I'm not very good at math, so I think I'd make a good journalist."
- "Why is the journalism building burnt orange?"
- "If you're not offending somebody, you are not using the First Amendment to its full potential."
- "I need to take a smoke break."
- "I need to get forced into a class..."
- "Forget what you learned in English— It's Wrong!"
- "If you can't say anything nice- You'll be a good journalist."
- "Pooh."
- "Trust me...I'm a journalist."
