BE A PART OF A NEW TRADITION!

You've heard about The Callaway House, College Station's premier full-service community, which will open its doors in the Fall of 1999. We're seeking eight outstanding individuals to be the pioneering members of our Community Assistant team as we initiate a new tradition in Aggieland. Community Assistants (or CA's) must be fun, bright, friendly and hardworking as they develop a unique student living environment through educational and social programs, activities, marketing, administrative and on-call duties.

Applications will be available January 24th through February 5th at The Callaway House Reservation Center, located behind the McDonalds at 111 Marion Pugh. An information session further detailing the position's duties and responsibilities will be held February 3rd.
