"Sexuality is a gift that needs to be respected," he said. "I want students to know that safe sex really isn't [safe]; abstinence is the only 100-percent safe choice."

Berit has spoken to local middle schools and high schools on abstinence. He said one of the major differences with college students is that most have been sexually active and do not know abstinence is still an option.

Dr. Noreen Johnson, local Obstetrician/Gynecologist, spoke on the medical risks of premarital sex.

"This topic can be devastating; premarital sex can lead to pregnancies and issues many couples cannot handle emotionally or financially," she said.

The Texas A&M Chapter of Cap and Gown National Senior Honor Society would like to invite members of the Class of 2000 to join us for an informational meeting February 10th at 8:30 in Rudder 407.
