PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Shales fills in for recovering Siskel

CHICAGO (AP) — Look for film critic Tom Shales when those thumbs go up or down on TV next weekend.

Shales will be the first revolving co-host to fill in for Gene Siskel on the syndicated "Siskel & Ebert" show while Siskel (He's the skinny one; Roger Ebert's the pudgy one.) recuperates from brain surgery.

Shales, like Ebert, is a Pulitzer Prize-winning critic. He is The Washington Post's television critic but has reviewed movies for the Post and National Public Radio.

Siskel, the film critic for the Chicago Tribune, had surgery in May to remove a growth on his brain. Ebert, the film critic for the Chicago Sun-Times, has been host by himself since Siskel took a leave of absence Feb. 3.

Humphrey receives Harvard fellowship

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey III, who lost a bid for Minnesota governor last year to former wrestler Jesse Ventura, will bury himself in his books at Harvard.

He was among the political figures named as visiting fellows Tuesday at the university's John F. Kennedy School of Government.

The others include David Beasley, former governor of South Carolina; David Pryor, former senator from Arkansas; Barbara Barrett, former Republican candidate for governor of Arizona; Myrth York, the first female candidate for governor of Rhode Island; William O. Taylor, chairman and chief executive of the Globe Newspaper Co., which operates The Boston Globe; and former President Ford.

Fellows generally teach a six-week study group and attend classes at Harvard. Ford could accommodate the school for only two days.

CBS will air movie about rapist's run

STAMFORD, Conn. (AP) — CBS plans to air a TV movie in March on the case of Alex Kelly, the former high school wrestler who went on the lam in Europe to escape charges of raping a teen-age girl in 1986.

"It's something that has garnered a lot of attention," CBS spokesman Mark O'Connor said. "The intriguing part in my mind is how he was on the lam for so many years."

"The Return of Alex Kelly" will be broadcast March 23.

Kelly is played by Margot Kidder, who plays Lois Lane in the movies, will portray Cassidy Rae, star of "Baywatch," plays the victim in 1997, a jury in guilty of rape.

He is serving a life sentence.

Rundgren joins All-Star Band

NEW YORK (AP) — All-Starr Band is back again, and the boys include Todd Rundgren.

Ringo Starr first joined the All-Starr band 10 years ago. The band also includes my Cappello, Gary Bruce and Simon Kirke.

The band already formed three dates in New York. The band is in Orlando, Fla.

McCLURE

In 1995, Gov. George W. Bush appointed McClure to the Board of Regents, where he serves as chair of the Committee to Develop Criteria for Future System Expansion and the Committee on Audit. He is also a member of the Legislative Committee and the Committee on Academic and Student Affairs. In addition, McClure serves as the Board of Regents' liaison to the Association of Former Students.

McClure said Board of Regents members are responsible for development and implementation of policies that affect system parts, including things such as curricula, admission standards and faculty tenure.

Anthony Edwards, a junior biomedical science major and president of the Association of Black Leaders in Science, said he has met McClure a few times and was nothing short of impressed.

"I think it's very impressive to be president in 1976, especially when African-Americans did not come to A&M until 1964," Edwards said. "I guess what impresses me the most is he's down-to-earth, and as someone of his status, it was unusual."

Leday said McClure is an inspiration to him and that he aspires to one day be like him.

"He [McClure] has definitely earned his position working through the ranks," Leday said. "Looking at people like him work through the ranks inspires people like me. He's a positive light to others and is really easy to talk to."

Edwards said he thinks McClure is an example of what African-American students can do with hard work.

"I think, in terms of African-American students, he shows what we can strive to achieve at this University," Edwards said. "If we work hard, we can do anything we put our minds to. It represents not only the diversity of A&M but also the open mindedness of people."

McClure's impressive resumé is a testament to those who believe barriers do not exist if they are not seen as obstacles.

"I think, in a sense, he represents being African-American or a minority and being an Aggie are not mutually-exclusive events," Edwards said. "You do not have to make a choice between them."

COMMUNICATION

"Companies want people to switch cause it lets them handle more calls and make a bigger profit."

Having a phone handy is useless if or if the number is not available.

The digital paging device ensures never out of touch.

"A pager can be good, or it can be bad," said. "On one hand, anybody that has touch with you can give you a beep your call."

"On the other hand, anybody who you just because they're bored can know you're going to get the page."

There is such a thing as being too ed. Ryan Poulter, a sophomore biology his experience soured him on pagers.

"I had a girlfriend who gave me a pager," Poulter said. "Every time I went out, she would beep me to see where I was doing."

"I'd have to listen to my friends all time for calling her all the time when I was doing stuff. When we broke up, the pager was her."
