"They played very well down there at their place."

Watkins said he believes Cook holds the key to victory for the Aggies.

"He truly has proved himself to be a Big 12 player," Watkins said. "Without him, we would not be in the position that we're in."

One factor in the Aggies' favor is the history of the ber 10 seed in the two-year history of the Big 12 Tournament. The 10 seed has a 5-2 record in the tournament and advanced to the semifinals times and the championship game once.

The winner of tonight's game will play the second seed, University of Missouri. Friday quarterfinal. The winner of that game will be on Sunday and will receive an automatic berth into the national tournament.

Clinton urged to legislate IO

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House was asked Wednesday to help clean up the Olympic bribery scandal, a simmering million-dollar corruption case that one gold medalist compared to a drug test for the leaders of the games.

In the wake of a scathing ethics report that said the world's biggest sports event was run by a corrupt club, President Clinton was urged to place the International Olympic Committee under the same federal laws that apply to other government agencies.

U.S. Olympic Committee President Bill Hybl, who sent a request to Clinton in a letter last week, said such action would be an important step toward cleaning up the "global crisis" of the Salt Lake City scandal, which bidders paid more than $1.2 million to try to buy votes that helped win the Winter Games.
