Softball team goes 3-0 in Hawaii

No. 23 Aggies move to 26-7 with trio of wins in rain-shortened tournament

BY BEN WESTBROOK
The Battalion

The No. 23 Texas A&M Softball Team improved to 26-7 on the season with three wins at the Bank of Hawaii Invitational in Honolulu this weekend. The women were undefeated in pool play before the tournament was cut short Saturday due to bad field conditions.

The Aggies began tournament play Thursday with a 5-0 win against the University of Connecticut. Sophomore Rachel Lewis led A&M at the plate with a 3-of-4 performance, while junior Angie Long and sophomore Tiffany Esters knocked in two runs each.

The winner on the mound was Aggie ace Amy Vining, who gave up four hits while striking out nine batters to improve to 13-5 on the year.

Friday, the Aggies squared off against the University of Wisconsin and the University of Eastern Illinois, pulling off one-run wins in both contests.

Esters opened the scoring against Wisconsin with a two-run dinger over the centerfield fence. The Badgers would return the favor with two home runs late in the game, but it would prove to be too little too late as the Aggies held on for a 3-2 win.

The winning RBI for the Aggies came in the top of the seventh off a triple by Lewis, plating freshman Tammy Donnell for the third and final run of the game. Vining claimed her second win of the tournament, upping her season record to 14-5. She also struck out nine batters, tying her career high for the second time in two games.

In the third game of the tournament, A&M rallied to come from behind to defeat Eastern Illinois, 4-3, and finish the weekend at 3-0. The women fell behind early after Eastern Illinois's two-run first inning but were able to come back and tie the game at 2-2 in the second off RBI's from Donnell and Lewis.

A&M freshman Lisa Klam tries to avoid the tag at home during the Aggies' game versus Butler University on March 7. The A&M Softball Team went 3-0 at the Bank of Hawaii Invitational in Honolulu this weekend.

In the fourth inning, Esters would come through with her second game-winning RBI of the day, knocking in Long and freshman Lisa Klam with a double to right field. Winning pitcher Jordana Barack would retire the side in the seventh to keep the win and improve her record to 9-2.

The women were scheduled to play the 14th-ranked University of California Sunday for the championship, but the tournament was cancelled Saturday due to bad weather and poor field conditions.

Amy Vining led all hurlers in the tournament with 18 strikeouts, while Esters led all hitters at the plate with six hits and six RBI's. Lewis had six hits for the tournament.
