PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Dylan, Simon pair for summer tour

NEW YORK (AP) — It's nirvana for 1960s folk fans — Bob Dylan and Paul Simon are hitting the road together for a summer tour.

It's the first time they have shared a concert bill.

Each man will play a 75-minute set, and for most of the tour's 32 dates, they also plan a few duets. The tour starts June 6 in Colorado Springs, Colo., and ends at Jones Beach on New York's Long Island on July 31.

Dylan, who is almost constantly on the road and last year performed several dates with Van Morrison and Joni Mitchell, told USA Today he is excited about teaming up with Simon.

"He's written extraordinary songs, hasn't he?" Dylan said. "I consider him one of the pre-eminent songwriters of the times. Every song he does has a vitality you don't find everywhere."

Simon has not toured since 1992, spending much of time in recent years on the Broadway flop "The Capeman."

"I like Bob; I like his music," Simon said. "I've known him for a long time, and it's a nice chance to play. I like the idea of where we came from and what we evolved into. We came out of the same early rock 'n' roll context and took similar routes, although mine's more urban."

bass viol and dulcian, Liz Boenig on recorders and Robert Boenig on recorders, crumhorn, lute, cittern and vihuela. All these instruments were common during the Renaissance.

"There is a lot of Shakespearean music," Harner said. "There are large numbers of volumes. There are even rock songs out. They set Shakespeare passages to music. Duke Ellington did a wonderful production of Shakespeare music."

Jennifer Heath, president of the Literary Arts Committee and a senior English major, said on Thursday there will be a Shakespeare reading in 601 Rudder.

"We're inviting everybody out to share their favorite Shakespeare stories by reading their favorite parts of plays and sonnets," Heath said. "It's more of an informal discussion where students share their personal interest in Shakespeare."

The main event of this year's Shakespeare Festival is taking place Friday evening at 5 p.m. in 111 Koldus. Ian Donaldson, one of the foremost scholars of English Renaissance dramas in the world and a professor at Cambridge in England, will be speaking about the rivalry between Ben Johnson and Shakespeare.

On Sunday, the festival ends with sonnet readings at Barnes and Noble Booksellers from 2 to 3 p.m. The sonnet contest winners will also be announced. Door prizes will be given out at all the festival events. These include Shakespeare related gifts donated by Norton Pub-

Holliday comments on past role as Flo

TROY, Ala. (AP) — It's been years since anyone was told to kiss Flo's grits.

Polly Holliday, who played the tart-tongued waitress on the 1980s sitcom "Alice," said she has not uttered her trademark phrase since the show went off the air.

"People ask me to say it, but the way I get out of it is by suggesting that they should say it to me," she said. "They can probably say it pretty well themselves."

She received a 1990 Tony nomination for her performance as Big Mama in Tennessee Williams' "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," but remains "Flo" to many people.

The Royal family celebrates Easter

WINDSOR, England — Easter Sunday services at George's Chapel were a dry run for Prince Edward and Sophie Rhys-Jones.

The couple will marry at the 15th-century Gothic Queen Elizabeth II

fishers and range from books to CD shirts.

Harner said Shakespeare is eternal, his message spans time.

"It is something for everyone," Harner said. "Even the audience was very mixed in terms of all social classes and levels of education. It is his breadth of appeal. His plays have many topics, but they reflect what we are going through — the passions of religion and what everyone has experienced."

Harner said this is an opportunity for students to see something alternative from science and engineering is welcome," he said. "This is an English majors. It is a kind of a cultural phenomenon."
