FACULTY, STAFF, ADVISORS, & SUPERVISORS...

Have you thanked your Graduate Students lately?

Now is your chance - because the week of April 4th - 10th is

Graduate & Professional Student
Appreciation Week

Graduate students are an integral part of Texas A&M University. They provide significant contributions and support through various (and often multiple) activities such as learning, teaching, research, and more.

Please take some time to recognize your graduate and professional students, graduate assistants, research assistants and teaching assistants for all the hard work they do for you,

Texas A&M University and the community. They deserve your recognition!

This message brought to you by Adult, Graduate and Off Campus Student Services in the Department of Student Life. For more information on how you can show your appreciation call 845-1741 or stop by Koldus 112.

Commission rules on judge for conduct withda

BASTROP, Texas (AP) — A judge who admitted to socializing with a topless dancer whose divorce case was pending in his court has been publicly admonished by the Texas Commission on Judicial Conduct.

Bastrop County Court-at-Law Judge Benton Eskew previously admitted to inviting the dancer to dinner, arranging to meet her at an Austin nightclub and seeing her at the club one night when she danced.

The commission also noted in its order that Eskew danced at a Bastrop private club last year with another woman whose divorce and paternity cases were pending in his court and who later went to ter leaving the club. Admonishing Esket the strongest action the could have taken on i
