Tracksters heat up home meet
Aggies produce 12 provisional-qualifying marks for NCAA

BY TOM KENNEDY

The afternoon heat could not keep the crowd away from the Texas A&M Invitational at the Anderson Track and Field Complex Saturday. Nor could it slow the Aggies on the track, as A&M produced a dozen NCAA provisional-qualifying performances.

The meet, which was not team scored, provided some fast times for the fans. In the women's 4x100-meter relay, the Aggies covered the oval in 44.69 seconds for a second-place finish. Both A&M and first-place Texas Christian University (44.68) broke the previous stadium record and provisionally qualified for the NCAA Outdoor Championships.

The women's 3,000-meter run showcased A&M's depth, with the Aggies taking six of the top seven places. Leading the team were sophomore Debbie Villareal, who won in 10 minutes, 16 seconds, and freshmen Kristy Bonn (second, 10:25) and Melissa Gulli (third, 10:38).

Freshman Katy Gilstrap aided the distance contingent by placing second in the 5,000-meter run in 17:59.

The women's sprint and hurdle crews continued to excel, as freshman Natalie Young won the 100-meter dash with a provisional qualifying mark of 11.51 seconds, while junior Chimika Carter and sophomore Christina Ohaeri placed first and second in the 100-meter high hurdles with provisional qualifying times of 13.13 and 13.42, respectively.

Ohaeri also placed second in the 400-meter hurdles with a time of 59.78 seconds, and Carter placed third in the long jump with a provisional mark of 20 feet, 2 1/2 inches.

The women's middle distances brought solid performances from junior Ann Dwyer, who outkicked the competition to win the 800-meter dash in 2:09, and senior Marisa Tuzzi, who placed third in the 1,500-meter run with a personal-best time of 4:34.

The women's field events also featured some bright spots for the Aggies. Sophomore Meshell Trotter won the hammer throw with a toss of 179-

Aggie junior Chimika Carter hits the ground during the women's competition Saturday at the Texas A&M Invitational. Carter won the women's 100-meter high hurdles with a provisional mark of 13.13 seconds.

2. Koonce won the discus event with a provisional mark of 166-4. Sophomore Esther Eisenlauer and freshman Katy Doyle placed first and second in the javelin throw with provisional qualifying tosses of 164-0 and 163-5, respectively, while freshman Erica Boren placed second in the pole vault by clearing 10-6.

The men also fared well, as seniors Billy Fobbs (10.35) and Toya Jones (10.40) placed second and third, respectively, in the 100-meter dash, while senior Micheal Price placed second in the 200-meter dash in a provisional-qualifying 20.76. Junior Johan Lannefors placed third in the 400-meter dash in 47.20.

Both sprint relay teams placed second, covering the 4x100 in 40.29 and the 4x400 in 3:08.23.

sionally qualified in the 400-meter high hurdles with a time of 13.98, while senior Steve Koonce placed second in the 400-meter dash in 51.11, also a qualifying mark.

The field events featured a pair of winners for the Aggies.

Senior Mike Lowrance placed second in the shot put (52-4) and junior Kendall Madden placed the pole vault after clearing 10-6.

Both squads continue their seasons next weekend at the Multis (decathletes only) in Calif., and the Texas 5-Day
