The MSC Visual Arts Committee announced the winners of Artfest '99 last night at a reception and awards ceremony.

The winning works will be on display in the MSC Visual Arts Gallery from April 12 to May 6.

MSC President Bill Anderson announced the winners and presented them with certificates and gift certificates to Hobby Lobby Creative Center.

"The purpose of art is to get us out of our comfort zone and into the world," Anderson said.

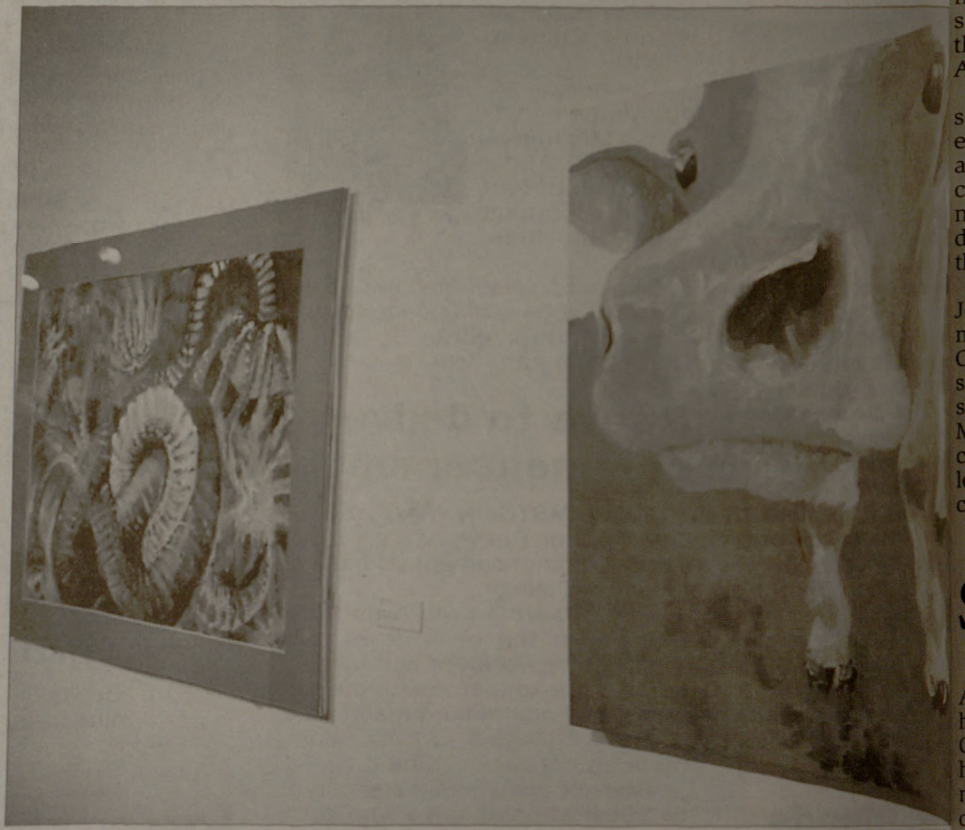

The winners in the following categories were

- Best of Show, Daniel Perez, a senior environmental design major
- People's Choice Award, Norio Tsuchiya, a senior architecture major
- 1st place in Painting, Dustin Kirkland, a sophomore computer engineering major
- 1st place in Drawing, Giancarlo G. Perossa, a sophomore environmental design major
- 1st place in Computer Generated Art, David Colon, a freshman environmental design major
- 1st place in Photography, Mark McPherson, a senior environmental design major
- 1st place in Sculpture, Colin McIntyre, a freshman environmental design major
- 1st place in Mixed Media, Eric Hartley, a senior environmental design major.

Perez, winner of Best of Show for his black and white photograph "Displaced Emotion #4," said he experimented with computer imaging and multiplicity to create the five-photograph composite.

Perez used five photographs of the same male subject displaying different emotions to create the single photograph in which the subject is simultaneously participating in activities including talking to a girl, playing a guitar and looking around the room.

"In creating this work, I tried to explore the different emotions, moods and character relections the subject is feeling," Perez said. Tsuchiya, the People's Choice Award winner for his colorful painting of a cow, "Got Milk?," said the project was originally required for a class.

"Manic Depressive," (left) a piece by Oliver Diaz, was awarded second place painting. "Milk?" by Norio Tsuchiya won the People's Choice Award at this year's Artfest. The award currently be seen in the Visual Arts Gallery until May 6.

"The idea came from a photograph of a cow in an ad, and it looked fun to me," Tsuchiya said. "I wasn't trying to communicate much with this painting; I just thought it was the most fun painting I have ever done."
