An evening of bowling Monday at Wolf Pen Bowling Center will kick off the annual Senior Week which ends with Ring Dance. The bowling night will be at Wolf Pen from 9 p.m. to midnight and will cost $1.75 per game. Tuesday night, there will be $1 admission for those wearing an Aggie Ring or a Class of 1999 T-shirt to the A&M-University of Houston baseball game. Seniors will have a chance to mix with students from the Class of 1949 during the Muster Picnic at the Academic Plaza. Brad Straub, co-chair for Senior Week for the Class of 1999 Council and a senior accounting major, said the picnic should be interesting since it is the Class of 1949's 50th reunion. "We thought it would be neat for the students to mingle with the Class of '49 instead of separate events. The evening Ring Dance Bash at Berry's. There admission for students for students. There are more than 100 students from the Class of 1949. This is a great opportunity for us to meet together in class," he said. "It's a chance to reunite with [from the ones] in Fish Camp. You met in and in other campus." Carla Marz of 1999 senior speech cation major are a series of so seniors more chance events. "Our main Senior Week one can go on and bond."

a $500 prize was sophomore Nicole Hurst. The two recipients of $250 prizes were sophomore Schelette Austin and senior Richard Rolison. Briones said the award is based purely on community service and is used to inspire more students to volunteer. The Gathright Award is named after the first president of Texas A&M College and recognizes superior academic achievements of students. The award went to the sophomore, junior and senior with the highest grade point-ratio from each of the nine undergraduate colleges and two students from the College of Medicine. The Buck Weirus recognizes students with their time and resources programs or activities. It is given to 5 freshmen, seniors, 15 juniors, 20 sophomores and two graduate students with the true meaning of "The Aggieland."
