The Pretenders Viva El Amor CD Courtesy of Warner Brothers Records

The Pretenders had its mojo working when Viva El Amor was recorded. The album is a good compilation of 12 songs that are groovy.

Chrissie Hynde's flawless and powerful vocals are backed by the equally powerful rhythms of guitarist Adam Seymour and drummer Martin Chambers, blending instrumental and vocal music together for an upbeat but not quite "pop" album.

"Popstar" is probably the album's best track; the song is infectious enough to have listeners tapping in time or dancing along.

However, when the Pretenders stray from faster songs, they tend to fall flat. "Dragway 42" seems to slow down the whole album and the listener down. It is simply better to skip the track and
